October 2022 ISSUE

Message from the President, George Darnell

September was a continually changing month. Three Zenith Group trips were cancelled because of low enrollment: Sep 15-16 — WV Panhandle Tour; Sep 19-22—Cape Cod/Martha's Vineyard Tour; and Sep 25—Commanders vs Eagles tailgate bus trip. But we ended the month on a high note when six of us gathered on the Walking Mall, despite the threat of rain, for an Oktoberfest walking tour of three craft breweries. Read Mary Supik's trip report. We are really fortunate to have so many craft breweries and wineries so close to Lake Frederick.

Please review the list of trips planned for the remainder of the year. Many of them are sold out already. This is our busiest travel season. If you signed up for the October 24 Potomac Eagle train ride, our Treasurer, Gary McDowell, will be contacting you soon to get your meal choice. Pray for a nice fall day for this popular trip.

The Fallingwater Tour needs 15 more people to join us or it will be cancelled. This trip was requested by some of our members, and I would hate to see them disappointed. We should be able to see some beautiful Maryland and Pennsylvania fall colors on this trip, as well as Frank Lloyd Wright's architectural genius.

Zenith Group will no longer offer trips exclusively for Lake Frederick. We don't have enough travelers to sustain them. But they will pick up and drop off in Lake Frederick on request. Call Ken Broadbent at 540-974-7992 and he will pick up your check at the concierge desk.

Shenandoah Tours also offers good trips that we advertise. But they will only pick up/drop off in Lake Frederick if we have at least ten travelers. Don't forget to remind them.

If anyone wants to share their adventures send us a report for the newsletter, or just share it with us at our lunch meetings.

Don't miss our October 10th Columbus Day lunch meeting. Bring your favorite dish and travel stories to share.

Oktoberfest Event September 30, 2022

By Mary Supik

True, we were not in Germany, but the weather and the beer would have fooled you. On September 30, six hardy members braved the wet Autumn weather for a mini-Oktoberfest beer crawl. We began at Dividing Creek Beer Company where we enjoyed some flights and some conversation.

We continued on to the Alesation Brewing Company, which had not only great beer but also a pretty exceptional food menu.

We finished up the evening at the Broken Window Brewing Company.

Eine gute Zeit hatten alle, Prosst! (A good time was had by all, Cheers!)

visit FALLINGWATER

Date: 10/27/22

Designed in 1935 by architect Frank Lloyd Wright, Fallingwater is a widely acclaimed work of organic architecture in the Laurel Highlands in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. The native sandstone building sits over a waterfall and is surrounded by 5,100 acres of natural land, streams, and trails, creating a scenic coalition of art and nature. With original Wright-designed furniture still intact, this landmark was named the "best all-time work of American architecture."
