

---

Community Spotlight

Tasha Moore

Tasha Moore has served inner city youth and their families in a variety of capacities over several years after graduating from VCU with a BS in Psychology. She has experience in the areas of early-childhood education, school-based behavioral counseling, in-home counseling, alternative school-based counseling; foster care and private agency placement, social work in the areas of reunification & permanency, supporting children with disabilities, and community engagement coordination for Communities in Schools of Richmond.

Leadership positions include Director of the Teen & Community Center with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Richmond, and currently the Family & Community Engagement Manager for Peter Paul Development Center. Tasha has facilitated groups, participated in speaking engagements, as well as participated in and hosted panel discussions on topics such as cultivating, restoring, empowering communities. Her passions are connected to helping to support individualized and or community level change specifically surrounding mental health and wellness of the black community.

Additional topics of expertise include trauma coupled with black male masculinity, strong black woman phenomenon, and culturally responsive strategies to advance culturally responsive practices to address common issues in the Black community such as co-parenting, divorce, blended families, substance abuse, and domestic violence.

To connect & learn more about the Amazing Tasha Moore please visit her website WeUniteLLC by scanning this QR code:

Scan me!

Tasha is currently accepting clients, speaking engagements and open to exploring the potential of facilitating workshops with partners. To book Tasha for a service please scan this QR Code:

billy