Name of Dog(s):

Licensed boarding kennels are legally responsible for every dog in their custody. It is essential that you supply instructions with your wishes for your dog(s) care in an emergency situation and agree that the Hirsels Kennels will take whatever action it deems necessary in the best interests of your dog(s) should the occasion arise. We need your contact details to reach you when you are away or the name and contact details of a friend or relative who can take responsibility on your behalf.

- If you or your representative are not sure what is best to do if your dog becomes ill, we will use our experience and judgement to decide.
- In the event of not being able to reach you or your representative we will use our experience and judgement to decide what to do if your dog becomes ill.
- If we feel that your dog is in urgent need of specialist vet care we will get them to the vet as soon as possible without wasting time on the phone. From there you will be contacted so that you can discuss your dog's situation directly with the vet.

If the worst happens, we cannot keep bodies on the premises. We will either take your dog to the vet as soon as possible or arrange collection by Sibster Pet Cremations.

You must make arrangements in advance directly with the vet or Sibster Pet Cremations to authorise them to pick up your dog.

If you do not wish to be notified while you are away you must let us know or if you have discussed your wishes with the vet, please let us know.

Finally

Nothing makes a bad situation worse than not having a plan. When we are upset and under pressure, we can make decisions that we may regret later. Help yourself and your dog by deciding on your wishes for what you want to happen when the time comes.
