CHERAMI

Cherami Fisher started her business in 2015 with a big dream of breaking full-time into the entertainment industry after she wrote two episodes for a TV Sitcom aired in 2012. As a child, Movies and TV shows ignited her vivid imagination to write comic books of exciting adventures with female superheroes. Entertainment defines who Cherami is today as a business owner and screenwriter. Eyes sparkling, she believes - "I'm a diamond ready to be discovered by Hollywood".

Cherami's inspired by her mother, Shirley, who was an outspoken Feminist and aspiring Opera Singer. Following in mom's fearless footsteps, she advocates equal pay and more writing opportunities for female screenwriters. She wants Hollywood to produce more stories with uplifting messages from Womens' perspectives. Her company's mission is providing producers in Film/TV Industries, provocative creative content with high concepts that are highly marketable - for maximum entertainment value.

The Women In Entertainment (WIE) program has incredibly impacted Cherami as she stated, “WIE provided me valuable tools to build my business and mentor me to be successful. Marianna’s amazing webinars are diverse, enriching, and vital for me to be a key player in this harsh industry. - You’ve furthered my industry awareness, built my career confidence, and given me a stable sense of belonging in your creative community. Your contribution has been priceless!” - Cherami
