Letter from Our President

Dear Women of Nassau:

The September Luncheon was wonderful! Sybil Purvis spoke about her passion and business, Pinky Promise. Thanks to recognition from the Philanthropy Committee, WON was able to give Pinky Promise a donation of $500.

For October we will bring back the most popular program to date - the fashion show! This event will be presented by Chico's, and our own WON members will be the models. And there will be a discount coupon for all members shopping at the store.

Remember WON has so many opportunities, don't forget to fill your calendar! Coming up next: the AIGS/AIMH Annual Cemetery Tour in October, shopping day at Fifi's, the WON mixer, Wine and Wanderlust, and more!

Don't forget the Welcome Coffee this month, on the third Monday, October 16th at 10 am at Story and Song. Come and join us for coffee and bring a friend! Let others know WON is the Club for fun and fellowship!

Thank you all for your continued support of WON!

Upcoming Events at Cummer Museum

Tattoos in Japanese Prints

Some of the world's most popular tattoo motifs trace back to the early 19th century Edo (modern Tokyo), where tattoo artists took inspiration from color woodblock prints known as ukiyo-e. Many early tattoo artists were trained as block cutters first. Today, the global popularity of tattoos has brought renewed attention to the centuries-old Japanese tradition. The Women of Nassau are planning a visit to this exhibit on November 18th. The exhibit begins around 11 am, the group will have lunch afterwards at the River and Post. For more information contact Dawn Bostwick, bostwickdwn@gmail.com.

Sporting Fashion: Outdoor Girls from 1800 to 1960.

The first exhibition to explore the evolution of women's sporting attire in Western fashion, Sporting Fashion will look at the extraordinary impact of new technologies and evolving social mores on women's clothing for sport. Inspired by a circa 1946 wool scarf inscribed with the word "Outdoorgirl" and featuring illustrations of women engaged in thirteen different sporting activities, this exhibition will chart the cultural and material developments that allowed women to make their way outdoors. This exhibition is slated for March to May, 2024. A firm date will be set and advertised later. For more information contact Dawn Bostwick, bostwickdwn@gmail.com.

Lynda introduced our speaker Sybil Purvis, founder of the charity "Pinky Promise". Sybil explained the nature of this organization "cancer doesn't have a face unless it's yours or someone you know" which is to provide women going through cancer treatment with some items to help them through this dark time in their lives and let them know someone cares. Women of Nassau presented her with a check for $500 to help support the cause. WON had decided earlier in the year to support this group as one of 4 philanthropic endeavors for 2023.

Adjournment: Joy Kemp made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 1:02 pm, seconded by Marie Larson and the motion carried.
