

10 Bathroom Organization Tips

Messy bathrooms seem unavoidable in a busy house, but they don't have to be! Follow these ten tips to always have a perfectly ARRANGED bathroom!

Keep Clutter off the Counters

Leaving your hair brush, face wash, and other toiletries out on your sink counter looks messy and can be unsanitary. Limit the items on your countertop to just soap and store other belongings in your newly organized drawers, shelving, and cabinets.

Use Door Organizers

Closets and cabinets provide a lot of storage, but that storage can be increased dramatically by adding an over the door storage rack or stick on shelving.

Hang a Shower Shelf

Keep your family's soaps and shampoos organized and out of the way by using a hanging shower caddy. Simply place it over the shower head and now you have easy storage!

Bath Toy Bag

Keep your child's bath toys from cluttering the room by storing them in a hanging mesh bag. The toys will be able to drip dry and your bathroom won't be scattered with rubber ducks.

ARRANGE Your Drawers

Toiletries and other personal items get scattered easily in drawers, and that is not helpful when you are already running late in the morning and can't find your mascara. Make your life easier by adding drawer organizers to these spaces.

Designate a Laundry Basket for Your Towels

Keeping a hamper in your bathroom is perfect for placing used towels. Now you can easily run a towel-only wash without having to separate dirty laundry or running around the house to gather them all.

Turn Things Around with a Turn Table

A perfect investment for any household storage space, the Lazy Susan shelf keeps soaps, bandages, and more organized and easily accessible.

Over the Toilet Shelving

Looking for additional bathroom storage but don't have any free space? Think again! Over the toilet shelves are great for storing towels, tissues, soaps, and more, while doubling as a place for decor that will spruce up the space.

Family Shower Caddies

Organize your bathroom and your family's daily routine by assigning a shower caddy to each person in your house. This way, everyone's toiletries will be stored neatly together and all in one place when they need it.

Utilize Corners

Be space efficient and utilize corners! Whether it be in the shower or in the bathroom itself, corner shelving is great for organizing.
