The Buffalo Soldiers were the all-Black segregated units of the United States Army that served from 1866-1947. Many soldiers from the 25th Infantry and 10th Cavalry were stationed at Camp Little-1910-1933 which was located on what is now Western Avenue in Nogales. Their job was to protect and defend the citizens of Nogales and ultimately, the State of Arizona from the enemy forces of that time.
