

Cancellation Policy

"Color Your Dreams"

At The Art Nook Studio, LLC, fostering a supportive and imaginative environment is at the core of what I do. To ensure everyone has a seamless and delightful experience, I'd like to share some details about my cancellation policy:

- No Refunds - Just Smiles:

I totally get it; your schedule is busier than a caffeinated squirrel. If your calendar resembles a Tetris game and you missed a key move, fret not, we understand that plans sometimes take unexpected turns. While I DO NOT offer credits or refunds for missed classes, I DO offer catch-up times as a courtesy.

- Late Arrivals - A Quick Chat Away:

If your young artist is running fashionably late, a quick text or email to let me know would be AWESOME! Not only does it save me from worry, but it also helps us ensure a smooth transition for your child into the creative space.

- Missed Class - A Palette of Options:

Missed a class? No worries! I offer makeup classes based on availability. However, please note that it's based on availability and not guaranteed. I will do my best to accommodate, but the art studio can be a busy canvas! It's your responsibility to coordinate the makeup with me.

- Catch-Up Times - Because Every Art Journey Deserves a Pause Button:

In the event that future classes are fully booked, fear not! I believe in second chances. I will arrange a special "catch-up time" where your young artist can arrive 20 minutes early to their regularly scheduled class to catch up on their project. It's like a little bonus canvas time to make up for what was missed. Just remember, these catch-up opportunities are like Cinderella's curfew - once the session ends, they turn into pumpkins.

- Camps and Workshops - No Catch-Up Magic:

Unfortunately, Hogwarts-style catch-up spells don't work here. No catch-up or make-up classes for camps and workshops; it's a one-time magic show!

- Vacation and Serious Illness – Special Arrangements Await:

I understand that vacations and serious illnesses are a different color on the palette of life. If your young artist is embarking on a holiday adventure or facing health challenges, please reach out to me. I'm here to help and will work with you – so let's discuss special arrangements.
