Fall Sales!

Pricing Subject to Small Monthly Change*

Hello October, as we gear up for the holiday season we hope you think of us first for your fall needs. We will be building up our supply of new and old favorites. We continue to see a constant shift in the market to new trends and categories, we can never have it all but are about working hard to stay with the trends.

Thank you for a busy summer, we had record months in June, July, August and September!! I know that won't happen every month but it means a lot when it does!

Have a wonderful fall!
