ABOUT

STUDIO DANCE AT CARU

Students who participate in Studio Dance at CaRu have the opportunity to partake in the annual Spring Showcase. The program requires a month-to-month commitment from September-December and then a full commitment from January-June if participating in the showcase. Students can take anywhere from one to unlimited classes!

COMPANY DANCE

JUNIOR COMPANY

AGES 7-10

Junior Company team members are a part of the CaRu Crew Competition Company. They have the option to compete in 5 group dances (each has one 45-minute rehearsal each week) - Lyrical, Hip Hop, Jazz, Musical Theater/Tap and Team Production with a minimum commitment of 2 dances. This group is only required one additional Ballet class per week. They compete at three regional competitions and one national competition.

PRE-PRO COMPANY

AGES 10+

The CaRu Crew is a pre-professional, nationally recognized group of dancers who compete with other dance students from all over the country in both regional and national competitions. Members are required to participate in a minimum of four group dances and are required to take two hours of Ballet each week. They also have access to and are encouraged to take unlimited technique classes in addition to required rehearsals. The CaRu Crew Competition Company competes at three regional competitions and one national competition.
