CHEESE

TICKLEMORE DEVON GOATS CHEESE -

A semi-hard cheese made from pasteurised goats milk, it has a lovely lemony freshness.

Gold – British Cheese Awards, Taste of the West, Global Cheese Awards.

SHARPHAM BRIE

Sharpham is a Coulommiers type cheese which has been hand-made in the creamery since 1981. It is a mould-ripened cheese with a unique flavour and creamy texture.

Gold – Global Cheese Awards, Taste of the West, World Cheese Awards, Best Soft Cheese at Devon Country show.

CORNISH GARLIC YARG

Cornish Garlic Yarg cheese is hand made in open vats at Lynher Dairies near Truro. Crumbly in the core and creamy under the rind, its distinctive wild garlic leaf rind imparts delicate flavours as it matures over six weeks.

A young, semi-hard cows' milk cheese covered with garlic leaves

DEVON SMOAKE

This is created by cutting Devon Oke into quarters and cold smoking the cut cheese over oak chippings for 3 hours. This retains the excellent creamy texture but gives a delicate smokey flavour.

DEVON BLUE

Devon Blue is a handmade cow's milk blue cheese produces using the milk from several farms in the South Hams. Cow's milk is available to Ticklemore Cheese Dairy all year around meaning that supplies should be continually available. Devon Blue has a beautifully smooth, slightly crumbly texture coupled with a round buttery flavour. It is matured between 3 to 6 months.

WOOKEY HOLE CAVE AGED CHEDDAR

Aged in the caves of Wookey Hole and has an earthy character and a distinctly nutty flavour

QUESO MANCHEGO

Made from raw ewes' milk in La Mancha, Spain. It is a beautiful cheese, with a firm, ivory paste, sometimes dotted with small eyes, and a hard rind. During the ripening period, the surface becomes covered with a greenish-black mould. The taste, depending on the age of the cheese, is salty, slightly to distinctly piquant and melting on the palate.
