Welcome to the 50th Annual Hamilton High School West Cavalcade of Bands!

For half a century, this event has celebrated the passion, dedication, and talent of student musicians from across New Jersey. Each performance showcases not only musical excellence but also the spirit, discipline, and energy that marching band instills in young people. Your support today and throughout the marching season helps ensure that this cherished tradition continues to thrive for generations to come.

The Cavalcade of Bands was founded in 1974 by Mr. Karl Recktenwald, who was joined just two years later by his brother, Mr. Thom Recktenwald. Together, they built a program rooted in tradition, pride, and excellence. For the next 25 years, their leadership and vision shaped the band which came to be known as "The Pride of Mercer County". That legacy lives on today, carried forward by our students, staff, and community.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to bring this event to life. In particular, we recognize Mrs. Leann Sikos, Mrs. Wendy Zuccarello, and the dedicated members of our Band Parents Club, whose extraordinary efforts and unwavering support make an incredible impact. We are equally grateful to our students for their commitment and enthusiasm, and to our administrative team and custodial staff for their steadfast support of both the arts and our students. Your contributions truly make all the difference.

Here's to honoring our past, celebrating the present, and inspiring the future through the power of music.

Dear Supporters of the Marching Arts,

Welcome to the 50th Annual Hamilton High School West Cavalcade of Bands! We are proud to host 8 exceptional marching bands this year, featuring over 400 talented student musicians. The dedication of these students, along with the tireless efforts of their band directors and band parent associations, is what makes events like this possible—and so special.

As a proud graduate of Hamilton West, I'm honored to present this milestone celebration to our community. This year's Cavalcade holds particular significance, as we celebrate 50 years of tradition, excellence, and musical achievement.

We are also deeply honored to recognize the legacy of the late Karl Recktenwald, a beloved band director whose passion, leadership, and contributions helped build and shape the strong band community we enjoy today. His impact continues to be felt in every note played and every student inspired.

A heartfelt thank you to our current band directors, Mr. Peter Certo and Mr. Davon Wheeler, for continuing this tradition with unwavering dedication and spirit.

Best of luck to all the bands performing today—and thank you for joining us in celebrating this incredible milestone!

Sincerely,

Brian E. Smith

Movement 3 — "The Reckoning/Awakening"

A journey into darkness—and the struggle for peaceful rest.

It begins at bedtime, with a calm, ethereal atmosphere gently settling in. But as uneasy sleep takes hold, the mind begins to race. Our dreamers, watched over by the Guardians of Sleep, find themselves under threat from the sinister Nightmare Weaver.

As the nightmare deepens, haunting emotions surface—echoes of fear, memory, and reflection.

Then, an uneasy awakening... and, with hope, a return to peace and comfort
