PAYMENT POLICY

Payment is expected at the time of your visit. All bills that are 90 days or more past due will be referred to a collection agency. If you are over 18, the collections request will go under YOUR name, not your parents.

An itemized paid superbill will be provided to you via email, normally within 1 week, for you to submit to your insurance carrier for reimbursement.

Appointments must be cancelled at least 24 hours in advance or there will be a charge in the full amount of the scheduled visit. We do not confirm appointments.

CREDIT CARD AUTHORIZATION

Our policy is to maintain a current credit card on file so that payments no made at the time of the appointment may still be processed at the time the billing is done. Your credit card will not be billed if you pay by cash, credit card or check at the time of service.

I agree to pay by cash, credit card or check at the time of service and I acknowledge my credit card number on file will be charge in the event that non payment for a visit or if my account becomes past due, unless other arrangements have been made. Payment is due at the time of service.

Patient Consent for Treatment and Use and Disclosure of Protected Health Information

I hereby give my consent for Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC to use and disclose protected health information (PHI) about me to carry out treatment, payment, and health care operations (TPO) as specifically outlined on my authorization.

The Notice of Privacy Practices provided by Armonk Integrated Psychiatry, PC describes such uses and disclosures more completely.

I have the right to review the Notice of Privacy Practices prior to signing this consent. Armonk Integrated Psychiatry, PC reserves the right to revise its Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. A revised Notice of Privacy Practices may be obtained by forwarding a written request to Joy Samanich, HIPAA Compliance Officer for Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC, One Hunter Avenue, Armonk, NY 10504. With this consent, Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC may call my home or other alternative location and leave a message on voicemail or in person in reference to any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO such as appointment reminders, insurance items and any calls pertaining to my clinical care, including laboratory test results, among others.

With this consent, Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC may mail to my home or other alternative location any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO such as appointment reminder cards and patient statements. With this consent, Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC may email to my email address on file or alternative email any items that assist the practice in carrying out TPO such as appointment reminders and patient statements. I have the right to request that Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC restrict how it uses or discloses my PHI in order to carry out TPO. The practice is not required to agree to my requested restrictions, but if it does, it is bound by this agreement.

By signing this form, I am consenting to allow Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC to provide treatment for myself or my child (which ever applicable). I may revoke my consent in writing except for treatment already provided and to the extent that the practice has already made disclosures in reliance upon my prior consent. If I do not sign this consent, or later revoke it, Armonk Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, PLLC may decline to provide treatment to me/or my child.

PATIENT-PROVIDER ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AGREEMENT

E-mail, Phone calls and Text messaging offer an easy and convenient way for patients and doctors to communicate. In many circumstances, it has advantages over office visits or telephone calls, but please be aware that there are important differences. All electronic communications carry with it certain risks. Risks of communicating via email include, but are not limited to:

- Email may be seen by unintended viewers if addressed incorrectly.
- Email may be intercepted by hackers and redistributed. Someone posing as you could access your information.
 Email can be used to spread computer viruses. There is a risk that emails may not be received by either party in a timely manner, as it may be caught by junk/spam filters, or the doctor may be out of the office or on vacation.
- Emails are discoverable in litigation and may be used as evidence in court. Emails can be circulated and stored by unintended recipients.
- Statements made via email may be misunderstood thus creating miscommunication and/or negatively affecting treatment.
 - Nonetheless, we believe that the ease of communication which these methods afford is a benefit to patient care. Below are our guidelines for contacting us via e-mail or text.
 - E-mail or texting is never, ever appropriate for urgent or emergency problems! Please use the telephone or go to the Emergency Room of the nearest hospital, for emergencies.
 - •E-mails should not be used if you are experiencing any desire to harm yourself or if you are experiencing a severe medication reaction.
 - •E-mail is NOT a substitute for seeing your clinician. If you think that you might need to be seen, please book an appointment.
 - •Appropriate uses of e-mail include prescription refill requests, referral and appointment scheduling requests and billing questions.
 - •E-mails or texts should not be used to communicate sensitive medical information regarding sexually transmitted diseases, AIDS/HIV, mental health, developmental disability or substance abuse.
 - •E-mail is not confidential. Emails may be forwarded to office staff to handle routine, non clinical matters.
- Do not use your work computer for emails . You should know that if sending e-mails from work, your employer has a legal right to read your e-mail if the email has gone through their system. E-mails will become part of the permanent medical record and, as such, they will be released along with the rest of the record upon your authorization, or when we are otherwise legally required to do so.
- You must let your provider know immediately if your email changes.
 Please note that our computers and wifi are password protected and encrypted. We do not access email from public wifi spots and emails are treated with the same HIPPA privacy rules.
 Either one of us can revoke permission to use the e-mail system at any time and must be done by written online communications or in writing to my office.

(initials please) I DO	want to communicate with my doctor electronically by either email	or text or phone. I have read the above information and understand t	he limitations of security on information transmitted.
