

CARLOS CHAVERST JR.

Principal Strategist & Managing Director, Chaverst Strategies

Mr. Chaverst is an entrepreneur and currently the principal political strategist for his consulting firm founded in 2017, Chaverst Strategies.

His passion lies in civic engagement, and he has had the pleasure to support many organizations on the local and national levels. Carlos worked on President Obama's 2012 campaign as a Field Director/Organizer in Florida and Historical Black Colleges and Universities Outreach Director for Bernie 2016 in Alabama. He also assisted as a regional field director for Terra Strategies during the 2017 special senate election, helping elected Democratic Senator Doug Jones.

In 2012 he was the recipient of the National Association of Black Journalist: Salute to Excellence Awards on a series that addressed trials teens face in today's society. Carlos has also appeared on HLN's former series After Dark as a regular guest. His administrative skills were a contributing feature to the President winning the great state of Florida and registering more than 500 new voters in the states of Florida. This is only a concise description of the work Mr. Chaverst has done to alter the world into a better place for everyone. Carlos has worked conscientiously to fight for issues such as gun violence, Medicaid expansion, and education restructuring.
