

Carlos Chaverst (Foundation)

Fact Sheet

Date Founded/History

The Carlos Chaverst Foundation was established in 2015 Carlos Chaverst Jr. after the passing of his late father, Carlos M. Chaverst Sr. in 2012. Carlos Sr. lived his life helping others until his death. In his honor, the foundation began by providing small scholarships to high school seniors. In 2020, the foundation is officially a non-profit 501(c)3.

Locations

Charverst Building
800 3rd Avenue W Birmingham, AL 35204

Major Events/Attendance

Mission

The focus is educating our most vulnerable communities on the importance of voting, registering young people to vote, providing scholarships for students, providing quality meals for impoverished communities, and working to improve the quality of life for black men, women, and children.

Products/Services Summary/Initiatives

Ethics and Professional Standards — Recognizing that the level of communities in Birmingham could be much better and with the foundation and much more, this is where change can start to occur. This foundation provides for the community.

Key Executives/Leadership

Carlos Chaverst Jr. - Executive Director

JaQavina Brockington- Operations Manager

Antonio Hill Jr. - Director, Community Outreach

-More-

Fact Sheet CCF

Recognition/Awards

Carlos worked on President Obama's 2012 campaign as a Field Director/Organizer in Florida and Historical Black Colleges and Universities Outreach Director for Bernie 2016 in Alabama. He also served as a regional field director for Terra Strategies during the 2017 special senate election helping to elected democratic Senator Doug Jones.

In 2012 he was the recipient of the National Association of Black Journalist: Salute to Excellence Awards on a series that addressed challenges teens face today. Carlos has also appeared on HLN's former his series After Dark as a regular monthly guest.

CCF is an upcoming foundation looking to make a change in every community. This organization plans to be on top. The name of the foundation shall be known by the lives we have touched and will soon touch. A change for a future generation.

Media Contact

Elijah King

Director of Public Relations

205.671.1302

foundation@carlosvslos.com

www.carlosvslos.com