Important factor to be considered in cocoa and chocolate processing set-up is Capital Intensive process and hence it might be not possible to cover entire value chain. Hence, the market is dominated by MNCs who are holding market from long time. But in chocolate industry, Small players are also having good position in Metro Cities.

Future Zen Consultants can help the Investors who are interested to setup the processing unit. Please drop a mail to venkatesh@futurezen.org for more details on this project.
