- Developing schemes of work, lesson plans, learning materials, and resources for use in educational & developmental activities, utilizing relevant technology to support instruction.
- Establishing and communicating clear objectives for all learning activities.
- Administering surveys in accordance with established procedures.
- Instructing and monitoring Ambassadors in the use of learning materials and equipment.
- Working to develop healthy relationships and a positive rapport with Ambassadors through effective communication.
- Assisting Ambassadors with maintaining positive behavior in the work setting by establishing and holding youth accountable to rules and procedures.
- Maintaining authority in accordance with the rules and disciplinary systems of Youth Ambassadors.
- Monitoring and evaluating the teen work groups and individual youth as they progress and develop, adjusting engagement strategies as needed.
- Communicating necessary information regularly to Ambassadors, colleagues, and supervisors regarding youth progress, development, and needs.
- Communicating necessary information regularly to colleagues and supervisors regarding materials, supplies, and/or other needs.

Qualifications

- Associate's Degree required; Bachelor's Degree preferred; Bilingual in Spanish/English a plus.
- Knowledge of the needs and strengths of youth ages 14-18 and families living in under-resourced and under-invested communities.
- A minimum of one year of experience working with youth in the nonprofit sector and/or an educational setting.
- Commitment to social emotional learning and education.
- Integrity, positive attitude, mission-driven, and self-directed leadership style.
- Ability to report to work on a punctual and regular basis.
- Performance of all other related work delegated or required to accomplish program objectives.

- Ability to use relevant technology.
- Proven ability to work cooperatively and communicate diplomatically/effectively with youth, staff, and volunteers.
- Occasional physical labor is required to set up and carry out programming activities.

You're a good fit if...

- You have a strong interest in and passion for empowering urban teenage youth.
- You prioritize working in an equitable and inclusive organizational culture.
- You are the kind of leader who brings teams together, fosters a healthy work environment and motivates colleagues to go the extra mile.
- You would thrive in an environment where you are expected to think outside the box.
- You are self-motivated and can work well both independently and in a small team environment.
