Naomi Tomkys grew up in London where she attended Central St. Martins School of Art. She now lives and works in Cambridgeshire. Her inspiration comes from the day-to-day moments that make her smile. Her oil paintings are collected by Sheikhs, Universities, libraries and in exhibitions and collections as far afield as Texas, Paris, New England, Washington, Zurich, Kuwait and Dubai. She was a finalist for the British Art Prize 2025. In 2026/7 Tomkys is artist in residence with the D'Albret Collection in Switzerland.
