“WOW, I CAN’T BELIEVE IT ”

Dedicated to those who served and those who still serve. To the men and women who played a role in securing the freedoms we enjoy, and all to often take for granted. I salute each one of you, and pray that you are keeping well.

On Thursday, October 16, 2025, my wife Ann and I had the privilege of being part of a Canadian Citizenship Ceremony in Calgary. A number of years ago we met a young woman, and we will simply refer to her as “D.” D immigrated to Canada with other members of her family when she was still in her teens. D is now well into her adult life and for the past 6000 plus days she has waited to become a Canadian Citizen, but because of some irregularities with other family members there have been delay after delay. Finally following much stress and not just a little money for legal help, her dream came true this past Thursday. The ceremony which included 127 other candidates was presided over by a recipient of the “Order of Canada.” It was humbling to be part of this ceremony, as the oath of loyalty to Canada was given and repeated in both French and English by the recipients who represented the various parts of Canada. Following this ceremony Ann and I had the privilege of having lunch with D, and continued our celebration with her. I experienced a sense of pride for our country during the ceremony that I have not felt in a long while.

But you know what really set this special event apart was D’s regular exclamations, “Wow I can’t believe it. It finally happened after all these years, I am a Canadian now, I can vote, I can run for office, and the world just opened for me.

As I reflected on this experience, I was impacted by the correlation between the between two events we celebrate each year, ‘Canadian Thanksgiving,’ and ‘Remembrance Day.” Both days are set aside to express gratitude for our Great Country, and the Freedoms and abundance we enjoy. And, coupled with this, we remember the sacrifice by men and women to ensure we continue to experience a country we can live in freely, and enjoy the abundance we enjoy.

What was D so grateful for? Well, there were actually many, freedom to vote for whomever you wish. Freedom to move across this country. A great Health Care System, that while not perfect, stands head and shoulders above anything she experienced in her country of origin. Freedom to say what you want to say, even if it is against the Government without fearing retribution, and the list went on. “Wow, I can’t believe it.” To see the joy, the twinkle and sparkle in her eyes, and while D did not wrap herself in a Canadian Flag, which by the way I suggested might be a good move, she was proud to tell others, “I am a Canadian.”

Comrades, while I acknowledge there was much euphoria here in this experience, and that will wear off to some degree, I have to ask myself. How grateful am I to be living in this great country, where I can enjoy and benefit from my freedom? Some of us tend to be more pessimistic than others, and I would include myself in this category. Following this experience with D, I have determined to express my gratitude for where I live, and the many freedoms we enjoy.

“WOW, I CAN'T BELIEVE IT” CONT'D

Gratitude seems to be something that we see less and less of as the days of our lives go on. An in-depth study by University of Massachusetts Dartmouth, discovered that gratitude has huge benefits to our daily lives. Here is a snap shot of the benefits of recording the things we are grateful for. I have only listed the salient points:

1. Less stress, 2. Greater Self Esteem, 3. Better Sleep, 4. Increased Optimism, 5. Mood Boosts

And so, Comrades, I leave you with this Prayer of Gratitude as we consider this important way for us to live:

OUR LOVING GRACIOUS HEAVENLY FATHER:

We come into your presence with hearts of gratitude for the many blessings you've poured in to our lives. THANK YOU FOR THE GIFT OF CALLING CANADA HOME. I thank you for the diverse beauty of this land we call HOME. The mountains, quiet lakes, deep forests, beautiful, simple and complex flowers, open prairies, a big blue sky. Thank YOU FOR BEING A GREAT DESIGNER.

Thank you for the freedom we enjoy- freedom to sing, to speak our minds, and to gather together with like minded people. May we never take this for granted, and may we use our gratitude to honour YOU, and to serve others.

We are grateful for the opportunities we have here in Canada, to work, to study and to contribute to the well being of others. Help us all to be wise and faithful with what YOU have given us to use, and help us to build communities that reflect the LOVE YOU GOD, have for us.

We thank you for the leaders in our country, our province and our city, and I pray that that they will be courageous, wise as they serve. May we continue to experience peace and unity within our diverse land, and may we have a shared desire to care for others.

We remember those that are not as fortunate as we may be, and we thank you that we have the opportunity to serve them, the lonely, the sick, and those who are often ignored, overlooked and marginalized.

We thank you for those who serve us as “FIRST RESPONDERS” “MEMBERS OF OUR MILITARY” and we express our gratitude to them and for them. Help us to show our gratitude by the respect we show to them, and for those who have won for us our freedom, and on whose shoulders we stand, we say thank you.

Above all we thank you for the gift of your Son Jesus, who came and gave His life for us, who died and rose again, and on whose Name we can call. I pray this prayer with a heart of gratitude and thanksgiving, in Jesus Name. Amen.

Rev. R.D. (Bob) Wiebe
Padre, RCL, Kingsway Branch

A wise old gentleman retired and purchased a modest home near a junior high school. He spent the first few weeks of his retirement in peace and contentment. Then a new school year began. The very next afternoon three young boys, full of youthful, after-school enthusiasm, came down his street, beating merrily on every trash can they encountered. The crashing percussion continued day after day, until finally the wise old man decided it was time to take some action.

The next afternoon, he walked out to meet the young percussionists as they banged their way down the street. Stopping them, he said, "You kids are a lot of fun. I like to see you express your exuberance like that. In fact, I used to do the same thing when I was your age. Will you do me a favor? I'll give you each a dollar if you'll promise to come around every day and do your thing." The kids were elated and continued to do a bang-up job on the trash cans.

After a few days, the old-timer greeted the kids again, but this time he had a sad smile on his face.

"This recession's really putting a big dent in my income," he told them. "From now on, I'll only be able to pay you 50 cents to beat on the cans."

The noisemakers were obviously displeased, but they did accept his offer and continued their afternoon ruckus. A few days later, the wily retiree approached them again as they drummed their way down the street.

"Look," he said, "I haven't received my Social Security check yet, so I'm not going to be able to give you more than 25 cents. Will that be okay?"

"A lousy quarter?" the drum leader exclaimed. "If you think we're going to waste our time, beating these cans around for a quarter, you're nuts! No way, mister. We quit!"

And the old man enjoyed peace
