They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old; Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning. We will remember them.

President's Message

At Kingsway Legion we strive to provide a place that our members and their guest feel safe & welcome.

I can say “Mission Accomplished”.

The work our staff, along with our amazing volunteers, do throughout the year does not go unnoticed. Whether it be assisting in the kitchen, sitting at the raffle table, cleaning up after an event, or working a bingo, it all counts towards the good and welfare of the Branch. Not only do your efforts have an immediately effect but it also allows us to put those volunteer hours towards receiving grants. By volunteering you have helped in reducing our operational cost by 15% this year.

From the bottom of my heart I say “Thank You” to each and everyone of you.

Have safe and wonderful holiday season. I look forward to see you at the Branch in the new year.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LADIES AUXILIARY

Our LA elections took place on Nov 18, 2025. Our new President is Madam Kim Earles. We have a new member on the executive Madam Arlene Murray who is a dual member. Currently we have 55 members in good standing. Installations for the Legion and Ladies Auxiliary is Sunday Dec 7th at 1:30 PM. Please come support the executives that put in many volunteer hours for the branch.

Our Auxiliary is a hard-working group and many volunteer hours are put in for the Legion in different capacities as well. You can find volunteers at the Legion Bingo's, at dances and the jam nights, helping serve food in the canteen at peak times, with the poppy campaign and anywhere else we can.

Our Christmas raffle, bake sale, white elephant table, ham & turkey draws and 50/50 takes place on Saturday December the 13th. If you are donating baking, please drop off on Dec 13th between 9:30 and 10:30 AM. The sale starts at 10:30 AM. The ham & turkey ticket sales begin at 1:00 PM followed by our 50/50. Right after the 50/50 draw we will hold our raffle draw. We only have about five books of tickets left to sell that day out of 1800 tickets printed. A huge thank you for all your support.

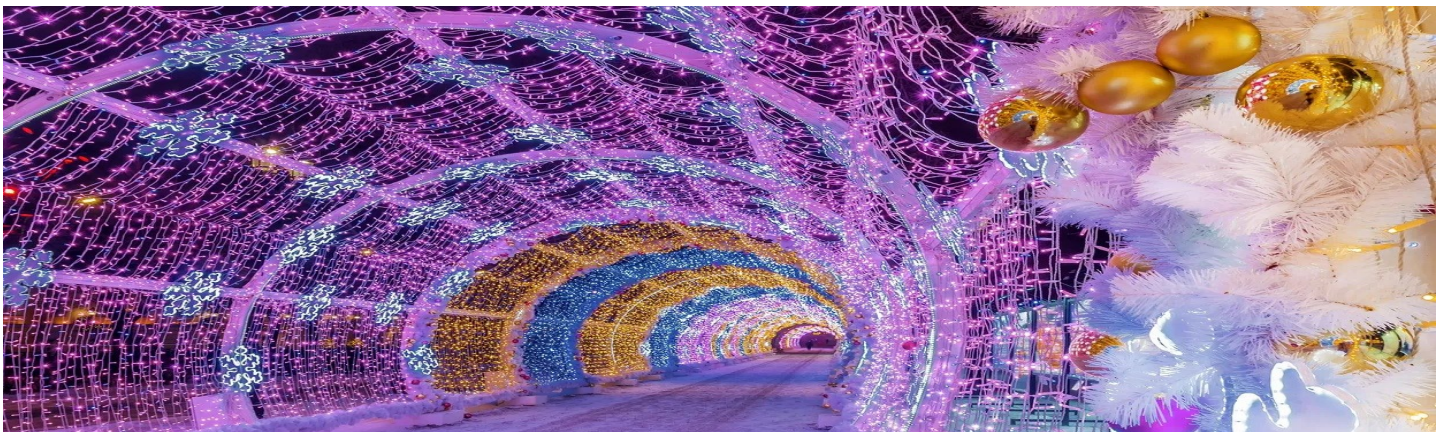

Some of our members have been busily purchasing and receiving donations for our Kipnes Christmas Project. Our members will put together 120 gift bags one for each resident at the Kipnes. We have received a few wonderful thank you notes from residents or a family member in the past. A thank you still goes a long way!

We will hold our Free Fun Bingo after the meat raffle and 50/50 on Saturday December 20th. There WILL NOT be a meat raffle and 50/50 on December 27th. We will be back in the New Year on Saturday January 3rd, 2026.

The Ladies presented a donation of $17,108 at the Legion General Meeting on November 25th and will have another $7000 to donate in December. These donations are made possible from the great support we feel and receive from the Easter and Christmas Raffle Days and our weekly meat raffles and 50/50. A heartfelt thank you for all your support.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to everyone!

Please remember to stay off of Santa's Naughty List!!!

2025 POPPY CAMPAIGN

Well, another Poppy campaign is coming to a close. Many hours of labor were expended and that is partly due to all the support that I got, from sitting in the Malls to making deliveries.

A special Thanks to Terese Biddiscombe for all her support. She probably logged over 300 hours keeping tabs on how things were progressing and entering all the data into the computer.

Geoff Biddiscombe did a lot of work in the background, he also deserves a big pat on the back.

I've been fighting a cold for most of this campaign so I have been slack in fulfilling my job. Trese and Geoff stepped up and did a great job of covering for me.

Hours to complete the job exceeded 250. It is a time consuming job but also a rewarding job. If you are at all interested in this assignment please let us know as we are looking for a co-ordinator.

Thank You one and all for your support. It's only through your help that the job got finished.

MILLER CROSSING FARMERS' MARKET

The Farmers Market will be held outdoors

every Sunday from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm

For updates on this event checkout our website:

millercrossingfm or on Facebook

Our goal is to provide the north east Edmonton region with a marketplace that encourages the local community to support a “Buy Local” philosophy.

We are an Alberta Approved Farmers' Market.

There was a man who was born on the fifth day of the fifth month of 1955, whose lucky number was five.

On his birthday, he went to the racetrack and was astounded to see that in the fifth race (scheduled for five o'clock) a horse named Pentagram was running, with the odds of 55 to 1.

Rushing off to the bank, the man was astonished to find he had $55,555.55 in his bank account. He withdrew the whole amount, dashed back to the races and bet all of it on Pentagram to win.

Pentagram, obviously, came in fifth.

“ ‘I KNOW ITS NOT QUITE CHRISTMAS BUT: ’ WHO WAS IN THE MANGER ON THAT FIRST CHRISTMAS MORNING?”

Hi Comrades

We are a couple weeks away from one of two Major Events on the Christian Calendar, Christmas, and so I'm thinking you are expecting something along the Christmas Line, and you would be right.

In both of my careers, an RCMP Officer stationed in a number of smaller communities, and then again as a clergyperson, I have experienced Christmas in a variety of ways. As a Police Officer I have worked many Christmas Eves, and Christmas Days. I preferred working Christmas Eve, as many times it was quiet, and I was able to drop by my home for short periods of time. During those evening shifts, I had occasion to stop by numerous residences, wish them a Merry Christmas and on several occasions play Santa Claus.

Christmas was usually quiet and I had much time to think, and regularly my thoughts would turn the real meaning of Christmas and what it really meant, for me personally. I had a number of opportunities to stop the Police Car, get out and admire the majesty of the stars, in their millions when all around me it was black. What was it about that first Christmas, that we still read about and think about several thousand years later?

In addition to the Bible, I have been impacted by a number of writers, and one of those continues to be Lee Strobel, a former Crime Reporter for the Chicago Tribune, and when I met him he was a Teaching Pastor at Willow Creek Community Church in Chicago, where I was attending a Global Leadership Summit. Among his numerous books, this one stands out “The Case for Christmas.” And, from that book he recounts the following story.

Quote: “Sixty-year-old Perfecta and her granddaughters Lydia and Jenny had been turned out of their roach-infested tenement and were now living in a tiny two-room apartment on the West side. As I walked in, I couldn't believe how empty it was. There was no furniture, no rugs, nothing on the walls only a small kitchen table and one handful of rice. That's it! They were virtually devoid of possessions.

In fact, eleven-year-old Lydia and thirteen-year-old Jenny owned only one short-sleeved dress each, plus one thin, gray sweater between them. When they walked the half mile to school through the biting cold, Lydia would wear the sweater for part of the distance and then hand it to her shivering sister, who would wear it the rest of the way.

But despite their poverty and Perfecta's painful arthritis that prevented her from working, she still talked confidently about her faith in Jesus. She was convinced He had not abandoned them.

Strobel goes on to say following his visit with this family, “I never sensed despair or self-pity in her home; Instead, there was a gentle feeling of hope and peace.” I continued to wrestle with the irony of the situation: here was a family that had nothing but faith and yet seemed happy.

Strobel went back to the Delgado home on Christmas Eve, and here is what he found: When Jenny opened the door, he says, “I couldn't believe my eyes.” Many of the readers of his article had provided the Delgado's with a treasure trove of gifts, furniture, appliances, and rugs; a lavish Christmas tree with piles of wrapped presents underneath; cartons bulging with food; and a dazzling selection of clothing, including dozens of warm winter coats, scarves, and gloves. On top of that, they donated cash. But as surprised as I was by this outpouring of generosity, “ I was even more astonished by what his visit interrupted: Perfecta and her granddaughters were getting ready to give away much of their newfound wealth. When I asked Perfecta why, she replied in halting English: “Our neighbors are still in need. We cannot have plenty while they have nothing. This is what Jesus would want us to do.” unquote

“ ‘I KNOW ITS NOT QUITE CHRISTMAS BUT: ’
WHO WAS IN THE MANGER ON THAT FIRST CHRISTMAS MORNING?’” *CONT'D

This story blows me away, and I can do nothing else but think, “Yes that is what Jesus would do, and has done, and continues to do.” I am reminded that I have done nothing to deserve the Love God had for me, by sending His One and Only Son, to come to earth, and live here for some 33 years. I try hard to imagine what His journey must have been like. He left the Glories of Heaven where everything was perfect and came to live on this earth.

You see comrades, the Child in the Manger was the undeserved gift that means everything. It means more than material possession, more than comfort, more than security, it means a new life for us all, especially during this coming Christmas Season. We have done nothing to deserve this amazing gift, did nothing to earn it: “It's a gift from God, who loved us, and it is that gift that we celebrate this Christmas.” The Child in the manger brings peace despite poverty, joy in the midst of sorrow. The Child brings the wonder of spiritual connection with Almighty God.

This Christmas can I encourage us all to read with new eyes, the account of the coming of the Baby in the Manger, in Luke 2: 1-16. I close with the question, Why did Jesus come? And I answer with these words, found in John 3:16, from the Message: This is how much God loved the world: He gave his Son, his one and only Son. And this is why: so that no one need be destroyed; by believing in him, anyone can have a whole and lasting life.

“JESUS the SAVIOUR, the PRINCE OF PEACE, THAT IS WHO WAS IN THE MANGER, THAT FIRST CHRISTMAS MORNING.”
