BRANCH GENERAL MEETING

The last Tuesday of every month except July, August, and December.
Start time 7:00 pm

President's Message

Finally, spring has arrived. Your executive has been working diligently on your behalf, especially Comrade Ron Wills and his volunteers, they have successfully applied for grants and reached out to different companies such as a two-day fund raiser golf tournament at the Cattail Golf course scheduled for April 30th and May 1st. look for the poster at the front entrance. We need our executive to come out and support this event as well as number of volunteers in uniform.

There will also be a Saturday Night Country Show and a live silent auction. Tickets will cost $100.00. Sunday night Wrap up will be held at the Branch.

Our 75th Anniversary dinner & dance is on April 2nd, if you would like to come to the dance that evening, tickets are $10.00.

Let's all get out and show our support at this event and show our support to help our Branch and show our appreciation to Comrade Ron Wills and all the volunteers for their hard work.

Next General Meeting

Tuesday, April 26, 2022 at 7:00 pm

The general meeting gives you a chance to let us know how we are doing and what we can do to make it better for you the members. Please attend the General Meetings and help to keep the Legion running.

Did you know that you can recommend any of your fellow comrades for a Legion Award.

If you know a members that you feel has promoted the Branch by working or volunteering their time we look forward to receiving your recommendation.

The AB-NWT Command Convention is planned for
Fri May 6 10:00 am to Sun May 8, 2022 4:00 pm

Location: Cambridge Red Deer Hotel & Conference Centre 3310 – 50 Ave, Red Deer

Father O'Malley rose from his bed one morning. It was a fine spring day in his new west Texas mission parish. He walked to the window of his bedroom to get a deep breath of the beautiful day outside. He then noticed there was a jackass lying dead in the middle of his front lawn. He promptly called the local police station.

The conversation went like this:

"Good morning. This is Sergeant Jones. How might I help you?"

"And the best of the day te yerself. This is Father O'Malley at St. Ann 's Catholic Church. There's a jackass lying dead in me front lawn and would ye be so kind as to send a couple o'yer lads to take care of the matter?"

Sergeant Jones, considering himself to be quite a wit and recognizing the foreign accent, thought he would have a little fun with the good father, replied, "Well now Father, it was always my impression that you people took care of the last rites!"

There was dead silence on the line for a long moment.....

Father O'Malley then replied: "Aye,'tis certainly true; but we are also obliged to notify the next of kin first, which is the reason for me call.

LADIES AUXILIARY

The Ladies Auxiliary continues the Saturday Meat draws and 50/50's. Hope to see you out there.

The Ladies are working hard on getting the Spring Raffle up and running. Tickets are available at the front desk or from an LA member. Draw is on April 9th, the same date as the Ham and Turkey draw, 50/50, craft and bake sale. We welcome donations of crafts and baking.

4# Kulhmann Basket-$50

Tickets are $2.00 each.

Also, the District Rally is on April 3 in our Branch, and the LA Convention is on June 10-12 in Fort Saskatchewan.

EARLY OR SECOND SERVICE

In the foyer of a church, a young boy was looking at a plaque with the names of men and women who had died in various wars. He asked the pastor, "Who are these people?" The pastor said, "Those are members from our church who died in the service." The boy asked, "The early service or the second service?"

THE FISHERMEN AND THE ANGEL

Three guys are fishing when an angel appears.

The first guy says, "I've suffered from back pain for years. Can you help me?" The angel touches the man's back, and he feels instant relief.

The second guy points to his thick glasses and begs for a cure for his poor eyesight. When the angel tosses the lenses into the lake, the man gains 20/20 vision.

As the angel turns to the third fellow, he instantly recoils and screams,

"Don't touch me! I'm on disability!"

UPCOMING FUNDRAISER

100.3 The Bear sponsored two Raffle Meat Draw on behalf of the branch.

A TALK WITH THE PADRE

As I begin my monthly writing for our Newsletter, I am reminded that we will be receiving this N.L. just in time for Easter, 2022. As I reflect on that time of year, I am reminded that within Christendom we take significant time in each calendar year to stop and observe, commemorate and or celebrate two major events, which while separated by give or take four months are inseparable.

Christmas is a time of Joy, New Birth, Celebration, Gift giving and receiving, and the list goes on. Yet there is a side to Christmas which we may overlook and while that may be valid, it is however directly connected to Easter. So, you may ask really, how are those two events connected and inseparable? Well, I'm glad you asked.

I begin by recording what was probably the first Bible Verse I ever learned as a kid. I was eight years old and preparing for summer camp, (I think my mom needed a break) and I know that was a verse I needed to commit to memory. I may have already known it, but I do know I had it memorized for camp. It may be a verse that you are familiar with. We see the numbers regularly at Sporting Events, on Tee Shirts. They are really the numbers of truth; they are the numbers of hope.

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave us His only son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal/everlasting life."

The truth of that verse is that God loved us, we are part of the world, so much that on Christmas the Christ Child was born to a human woman. Imagine for a moment, that God Himself in the form of a human baby, confined to a woman's womb for nine months, came into this world for one single purpose. We call that Christmas, and we celebrate His coming. For thirty-three years He lived, being God in His deity, power and all knowing and yet living as a human being. Why? So he could identify with the human race.

But then, the tide of public opinion turned against Him, and the purpose of His coming in the first place began to unfold. And that brings us to Easter. God loved the world that He had created so much, and His desire to be in relationship with us was so important to Him, that His only Son, gave up His life willingly so we could be in a relationship with Him.

I recently completed reading a Book by Max Lucado, entitled 3:16. While there are numerous illustrations that stood out, I want to share one with you which for me was the highlight. In John 3:16, God does for us what Bill Tucker's father did for him. Bill was sixteen when his dad suffered a health crisis which forced him to leave his business. After regaining his health, the Tucker family struggled financially barely getting by. Mr. Tucker came up with an idea. He won the bid to reupholster the chairs at the local movie theater. The family was stunned, he had never stitched a seat. He didn't own a sewing apparatus. Yet, he found someone to teach him the skill he needed, and he located an industrial-strength machine. The family scraped together every penny they had to buy it. They drained every account they had, and even dug coins out of the sofa. Finally, they had enough.

It was a great day when Bill rode with his dad to pick up the machine. Bill recalls the hours long trip discussing the bright horizons this new opportunity would afford them. They loaded the machine in the back of the truck and secured it. Dad, then invited his son to drive home. Bill continues the story.

"As we were driving along, we were excited and I, like any sixteen-year-old driver was not paying enough attention to my speed. I was turning on the cloverleaf to get onto the freeway,

A TALK WITH THE PADRE

I will never ever, ever forget watching the sewing machine, which already top-heavy begin to tip. I applied the brakes, but it was too late. I saw it go over the side. I jumped out and ran around the back of the truck, and as I rounded the corner, I saw our hope and dream lying on its side in pieces. And then I saw my dad just looking. All his risk, all his endeavor, all his struggling, all his dreams, and all his hope to take care of his family was lying there, shattered.

“You know what comes next, don’t you? ‘Stupid, punk kid driving too fast, not paying attention, ruined the family by taking away our livelihood.’ But that’s not what he said. He looked right at me. “Oh, Bill, I am so sorry.” He walked over, put his arms around, and said, “Son, this is going to be okay.”

God is whispering the same to each of us. Those are arms we can feel. That is a voice we can hear. When life, as it often appears to fall to pieces, seem irreparable, and hopeless, its going to be okay. You ask Bob, how can you make a statement like that? I know, because “God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son.”

If God can make a billion galaxies, why would I not believe that He can came something good out of our bad, and sense out of our sometimes-faltering life? He can and He will, because He loved the world, and you and I are part of His world.

And that comrades, is the real story of Easter. It is the story of a God loving us so much and desiring to have a personal relationship with each of us, that prompted Him to provide us with Jesus, who came so we could live.

So, this Easter as we gather with family and friends, as we hide Easter Eggs, chocolate rabbits, for our kids, or more likely our grandkids, lets enjoy the time together. Let’s enjoy and cherish the memories we are building, but most of all let’s stop! Stop to remember what Easter, is all about, and how Jesus coming to earth and dying on a cross, so I/we could have a relationship with Him, and by accepting His death on my behalf, spending eternity with Him.

For God loved the world in this way: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16, CSB

May each of you feel blessed and encouraged this Easter Season. Blessings on you all.

Rev. R.D. (Bob) Wiebe, Padre

VETERAN SUPPORT

Legion Supports the Awarding of Private Larochele

The Royal Canadian Legion is supporting efforts to award a Canadian soldier the Canadian Victoria Cross. It is the country's highest honour for bravery, valour, self-sacrifice and devotion to duty when in the presence of an enemy.

Private Jess Larochele served in Afghanistan and performed selfless acts to save others during an attack by enemy forces in 2006. Media reports describe a badly wounded and bleeding soldier who returned to his post to prevent further casualties as enemy fighters gained ground. While severely injured he fired multiple M72 rockets, resulting in the enemy's retreat and saving the rest of his section. Two members had already died.

"There is no doubt that Private Larochele went above and beyond in excruciating circumstances to save his Comrades and serve our nation," says Bruce Julian, Dominion President. "We ask that our military leaders review Private Larochele's actions with a view to honouring him with this award."

The Legion joins a chorus of others requesting Pte. Larochele be recognized for his extraordinary service with the Canadian Victoria Cross.

He was previously awarded the Star of Military Valour, which is the second highest award for bravery. The Victoria Cross was established in 1856 and has been awarded to over 80 Canadians. The Canadian Victoria Cross was established on 1 January 1993 and has not been awarded to any soldiers to date

4 college students are having a great time on spring break.

So they decide to spend an extra week away from class. One of the students calls his professor, and says "prof, we are stuck in Daytona beach. We won't be able to make it back in time for exams because the tire on our car blew. We need to get it fixed before we head back".

The prof says "no problem. Your safety comes first. Do what you need to, and when you get back the four of you can write the exam at that point".

So the students live it up for another week. Drinking. Partying. Etcetera.

When they get back to school a week later, the prof welcomes them, sits them each in different rooms, and hands them the exam.

When they turn the page over to start writing, they find their exams have only one question: "which tire?"
