Red Shirt Friday History

Military spouses Lisa Miller and Karen Boier organized an event and rallied many of their fellow Canadians to show up wearing red. While the "RED" is the color that fits the acronym, it also happens to work perfectly with the Canadian flag.

Red Shirt Friday History

These events gathered steam and grew continuously until, eventually, its reach extended all the way up to the Canadian Prime Minister, Stephen Harper. On Sept 23rd, 2006, Harper led a rally of thousands in a show of solidarity for the Canadian soldiers deployed to Afghanistan as part of the Global War on Terrorism.

RED Fridays seem to wax and wane in terms of popularity among civilians, but the core of the movement is important: to Remember Everyone Deployed. The Global War on Terrorism is now officially older than troops eligible to enlist and serve in that same war — it's important to remember that we've still got men and women out there fighting for us.

It's not hard to show your support for the troops: Simply pick something red from your members, and supporters of the troops, but it actually got its start about a dozen years ago. Let's talk about how this patriotic way of showing your support for the troops that are in harm's way got started and why it's an important movement.

It was back in the “old days”, when we were still on the “Kingsway” site that a member, Sapper, told me a story of a logo design that he put on a red T-shirt, for the local MFRC to sell to help pay for their programs. They didn't have the resources to do so. I asked him if I could take it on instead. Chuck Isaacs gave me permission, and TNT Promo Products Ltd. kept me supplied with the T-shirts and the merchandise that helped raise thousands of dollars for our local Military Family Resource Centre. Through our Legion, the Exhibition and many other locations in and out of Alberta, we were able to raise these funds. Thank you, Mac, Betty, Wayne, our office staff, and everyone else who volunteered during these events. Do you remember signing a banner thanking all of our troops, during this time?

Kingsway Legion Ladies Auxiliary

A Message from the Ladies Auxiliary

I know summer is coming to an end as I see the leaves starting to change and our Ladies Auxiliary members getting ready for another great year! You can join our fun through becoming a member!! Membership is free for the first year. Forms are at the front desk.

Our General meetings are the second last Tuesday of the month at 12:30 PM.

Get out of the house Saturdays and come to our meat raffles and 50/50's. Tickets are on sale at 1PM. Generally we are done all draws around 2PM. Pop into the market Sundays and support us through the sale items Vickie Torrie has.

Our "Button Bingo" is back on September 9th. It is held right after the Meat Raffles & 50/50. There is no cost and prizes are donated items. It is just for some fun so come out and enjoy!

Speaking of fall....Thanksgiving is early this year so the Ladies Auxiliary's Ham & Turkey Meat Raffle will be Saturday September 30th.

We are making plans for our Christmas Raffle. Tickets will be available in October.

I am asked occasionally what our fundraising goes towards and what we do. Our fundraising goes towards Kingsway Legion, Ladies Auxiliary AB-NWT Command, Kipnes Centre (veterans) providing support to their bingos and monthly birthday parties, Last Post Fund, Edmonton Poppy Office, 504 Blatchford Cadets, NLCC Hill Cadets, 1809 CER Cadets and 180 20th Fld Cadets, Lest We Forget Concert and other special voted on donations when funds are available.

As for what we do. Our Ladies run our fundraising efforts through raffle ticket sales, bake and craft sales, the market sales, and our meat draws and 50/50's. We support the Legion through volunteering with the poppy campaign, volunteering at the door at events, clearing tables etc. Ladies volunteer at the Kipnes Centre for monthly birthday parties, visiting residents, aid with feeding residents, assist with church masses, hymn sings, at "The Bistro" (store), at bingo's...I believe I got them all! We just helped the Kipnes collect food for the Veteran's Food Bank which they greatly appreciated. The Ladies Auxiliary also has a small library in our storage room with a variety of books all Legion members are welcome to browse and borrow from.
