WHY WEAR A POPPY

*"Please wear a poppy", the lady said and held one forth, but I shook my head
Then I stopped and watched as she offered them there,
And her face was old and lined with care.
But with the scars the years had made there remained a smile that refused to fade.*

*A boy came whistling down the street, bouncing along on care-free feet,
His smile was full of joy and fun, Lady said he, "May I have one?"
When she pinned it on he turned to say, "Why do we wear a poppy, today?"*

*The lady smiled in her wistful way, and answered "THIS IS REMEMBRANCE DAY,
And the poppy there is the symbol for the gallant men and women who died in war,
Because they did, you and I are free, that's why we wear a poppy, you see.*

*I had a boy about your size, with golden hair and big blue eyes.
He loved to play and jump and shout, free as a bird he would race about.
As the years went by he learned and grew, and became a man—as you will too.*

*He was fine and strong with a boyish smile, but he'd seemed with us such a little while
When war broke out and he went away, I still remember his face that day.
When he smiled at me and said "Goody-bye, I'll soon be back Mom so please don't cry.*

*But the war went on and he had to stay, all I could do was wait and pray.
His letters told of the awful fight, (I can see it still in my dreams at night).
With the tanks and guns and cruel barbwire, the mines and bullets, bombs and fire.*

*"Till at last, war was won, that's we wear a poppy son".
The small boy turned as if to go, then said Thanks, lady, I'm glad to know,
That sure did sound like an awful fight, but your son—did he come back all right?*

*A tear rolled down each faded cheek, she shook her head, but didn't speak.
I slunk away in a sort of shame, and if you were me you have done the same.
For our thanks in giving, is oft delayed, through our freedom was bought,
And thousands paid.*

*So when we see a poppy worn, let us reflect on the burden borne.
By those who gave their very all, and asked to answer their country's call.
That we at home in peace might live, then wear a poppy. Remember—and give!*

2024 Poppy Campaign Schedule

As we turn our focus to Remembrance Day and the 2024 Poppy Campaign, I urge all Kingsway members to volunteer. Our Veterans and active service members need Your Help. This year's campaign will be run by committee and not one individual. We are looking for members to work as Mall Sitters, Drivers, Route Managers etc. There are over 194 volunteer positions that need to be filled and we can only succeed with your support. We have reduced our volunteer requirements from previous years but our numbers remain high due to the extra week added to the campaign. Please help us by signing up early so we can confirm all positions are filled. Sign up sheets are located in the hall just outside the boardroom.

UP COMING SILENT AUCTION

Kingsway Legion will be having a silent auction on October 19th, 2024. All proceeds will go directly to Kingsway Legion so that we may continue to provide support to our veterans, our community and Legion family.

On behalf of the silent auction committee I'm looking for new items to be used as auction items (gift certificates/cards, liquor/wine, new jewelry household items, unused gifts etc). If you have items they may be dropped off at the front desk at Kingsway please label them silent auction, the value or approximate value and your name and address or the name and address of the business donating the item. Letters requesting donations will be available at the front desk on Tuesday August 13th. Often businesses we frequent are happy to help out a great cause, the salon/barber you go to, your favourite restaurant or takeout place, where you shop any place you do business.. A silent auction can only be successful if we have items to auction.

Any business that donates will be thanked in our news letter, facebook and website.

The next step in making the auction a success, are volunteers. We will need help, going to businesses and requesting donations, getting auction items ready for display and help monitoring items that will be on display for bidding the week prior to October 19. Please let me know if you can help out for an hour or two, many hands make light work.

Please contact me if you have questions or are able to help out in any way.

Thanks you for your support
