WHAT'S YOUR IRRATIONAL FEAR?

Somniphobia: is the fear of sleeping.

A fear of sleep, often related to nightmares or the fear of losing control while unconscious.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome Back

I would like to thank all members of the past executive for all their hard work and countless hours they have put in over the year. Without their dedication we wouldn't be as strong as we are.

It would be remised if a huge “THANK YOU” didn't go out to the many volunteers that help keeps the Branch going. Your efforts have saved the Branch countless dollars in operating fees.

In addition, the Ladies Auxiliary is an integral part any legion and we are lucky to have our dedicated Auxiliary members. Last year the Ladies Auxiliary donated over $15,000 to the Branch. I ask that you continue to give them the support they deserve to meet their mission.

Kingsway Legion is proud to have a Zero Tolerance Harassment Policy in place. All Legion members and their guest should feel welcome. In the event you feel unsafe please let me or a member of the executive know. If you can't find an Executive Member you can contact the front desk.

We are continually working to keep the website up to date, and sending out a monthly newsletter, and updating the TVs regularly. Our hope is that you use these tools to keep abreast of what's happening at your Branch and to encourage you to “come on down”.

The last note I would like to express is for you to get involved, come to meetings, share your ideas, participate in the various activities or events. Support your Legion and join us for fun and camaraderie.

Happy New Year Everyone

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE LADIES AUXILIARY

Happy New Year!

We held a successful bake sale, White Elephant Table, ham & turkey draw 50/50 and raffle thanks to all your support through purchasing and donating items.

The winners of the raffle items are:

The grocery hamper valued at over $400 was Kirk Oates

The various gift cards valued at $250 was Ann Peters

The winner of the third prize of a cheese board gift basket valued at $100 was Evelyn Kinasewich.

Unfortunately Evelyn was not present during the draw, so we have no picture of her receiving her prize.

On December 19th our Ladies went to the Kipnes Centre for Veterans and put together 120 gift bags to be given out Christmas morning. We also brought a box of Mandarin oranges and a large tin of cookies for each of the eight houses. The oranges were generously donated from Save-on-Foods again this year.

Our December 20th our Ladies Auxiliary held their Free Fun Bingo. We had a great attendance for it. People seemed to be enjoying themselves which is what it's all about. The next Free Fun Bingo is on January 10th.

Also on December 20th I put a Santa boot out at the meat raffle and asked people to put some ideas in for my 70 year old husband who could not come up with ideas. I wrapped the boot up and gave it to him Christmas morning. He had some good chuckles from your ideas thank you for submitting your thoughts.

A man visited his doctor, and the doctor checked him over before commenting, "It looks like you get a fair bit of exercise."

The man replied, "Oh yeah, in fact, just the other day I walked 5 miles over rugged terrain as I climbed over rocks and trees. I also waded along the edges of a lake, pushing my way through tall thistles, and even slid down sandy slopes while getting sand in my eyes."

The doctor was quite impressed. "Well, you are certainly a dedicated outdoor enthusiast."

The man replied, "Not really, doctor. I'm just a really bad golfer."

“ANOTHER NEW YEAR!” BUT WHAT WILL BE NEW ABOUT IT?

As I was reflecting on what this article might look like as we enter 2026, I was reminded that so often our lives continue on much the same as we enter a new year. But then I remembered 26 years ago, as we entered a New Millennium, the year 2000. I was a pastor at a church in Brandon, Manitoba and at the same time serving as the Chaplain for the Brandon Police Service.

All of us remember the hype around the new Millennium; computers would fail, airplanes would crash, and the world was going to fall apart or maybe even end. As a Police Chaplain I did ride along with the officers on patrol, many of them during the evening shift. I wore the uniform of the B.P.S. with the words Police Chaplain on my Vest, which hopefully made up for the fact I did not carry a sidearm. The evening of December 31, 1999 and into 2000 I had numerous requests to accompany various officers in their patrol cars. As we neared midnight you could sense the tension as we attended calls, and some within the patrol vehicle as well. Conversation centered around, what might happen. As the Police Chaplain I prayed for all the officers in their vehicles and probably extra prayers for the vehicle I was in. Just before midnight the chatter on the radio all but stopped, and we waited as we drove the streets of Brandon. BUT nothing happened. The world didn't end, the computers kept on working and there were no explosions, there were no alien invasions, and the world didn't change a whole lot. A couple hours into the new millennium, the officer I was riding with, took me home. All was peaceful once again, and any fears dissipated.

Fear seems to be the opposite of peace, and peace is so critical to our well-being. We have just celebrated the birth of the Christ Child during Christmas Season, and so let's consider: Isiah 9:6

For a child is born to us, a son is given to us. The government will rest on his shoulders.
And he will be called: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, PRINCE OF PEACE.

From where I sit it seems to me that over the years our world has become more and more divided, we deal with more anxiety than ever, and serious division which runs deep. I think back at some of the General Meetings we have had recently, with emotions and sentiments running high. Social media often turns our beliefs into declarations instead of dialogue. Algorithms feed us what we already agree with, making us more opinionated and less open to listening. As a result, we grow proud, closed off, and quick to label others. Might I suggest that at the root of many of our disagreements is fear? I have had my share of times when I have been afraid in my RCMP Service. I have been involved in several “firearm incidents,” and that brings a real sense of fear. But, nothing like the story of the Shepherds, we read the story in Luke 2:8-15

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.” Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.”

I have a difficult time imagining what that scene must have looked like. Except for a few who drew the night shift, the rest were sound asleep, when suddenly “an Angel appears.” Then the sky is filled with multitudes or hosts of singing angels and blinding lights. “Afraid!” that might be an understatement. Nothing like this had ever happened to these shepherds. One translation of the Bible uses the word, “Terror Stricken.” All I can say is, I guess so, I would have been.

As we enter the new year, 2026, with many uncertainties we will need to face. Things like our health, will costs of food keep increasing and will I have enough income to counter that. We don’t have to spend much time thinking about uncertainties we face in 2026. I am quite sure it won’t be as dramatic as the turn of the Millennium in 2000. But we will face uncertainties. we can enter it with a sense of renewed hope. As I read the Christmas story, I am reminded that there is hope. Hope found in the birth of Jesus the Christ Child. And while it reminds us of Christmas, it also reminds us that Jesus’ coming to earth did not only entail Christmas. He came to set people free of the fear we often experience. And His words to us are still “Fear Not.”

We could ask the question as I look ahead into 2026 and the world around me, is there some fear attached to this outward looking? Fear of the unknown, fear of yet more price increases at the grocery store, fear of that diagnosis I may be waiting for. I know that for many of us in the line of work that we either are or were in, brings with it a sense of fear, that we will face or have faced.

Throughout the Scriptures there are some 82 “Fear Not Statements.” As 2025 draws to a close, and a New Year begins, with many unknowns, both individually and collectively, be comforted by these words:

Isaiah 41:10,

So do not fear, for I am with you, do not be dismayed, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you and help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

And then the words of Jesus to His followers, and to us all: Matthew 11:28-30

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

May the “Peace of Jesus” surround each of you in this new year.
