Cleveland SHRM (CSHRM) Announces the 2011-2012 Member of the Year Award Winner

The CSHRM Board of Directors has awarded the 2011-2012 Outstanding Committee Member of the Year Award to Gary Convertino, PHR. This award recognizes a committee or board member who has contributed in an exemplary manner to CSHRM and the human resources profession through their ongoing commitment to the society and professional development. Gary currently serves as the Bryant & Stratton college liaison, the workforce readiness coordinator, Junior Achievement bowl-a-thon team captain, advocate of the Adopt-a-Soldier program, a facilitator in the CSHRM certification study group as well as the college student leadership capstone program and a valued member of the education committee. Since joining CSHRM in 2009, Gary always exudes enthusiasm zeal and humor while exhibiting his commitment to the chapter through creative instruction, coaching, program development, strengthening strategic partnerships and brainstorming creative ideas along with a willingness to share his expertise with others in the human resources profession. On behalf of the CSHRM Board of Directors thank you to all of the volunteers who contribute to the success of the chapter. Our chapter is extremely fortunate to have so many dedicated and talented volunteers!
