Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the [Position Title] role at [Company Name]. With over 25 years of experience in marketing, sponsorship development, and brand strategy—and a proven track record of exceeding revenue goals and building impactful campaigns—I bring creativity, leadership, and results-driven focus to every endeavor.

In my current role as Director of Marketing and Sponsorship for the Gay Men's Chorus of South Florida, I have:

- Secured and exceeded corporate sponsorship revenue goals by developing compelling proposals and activating long-term partnerships.
- Spearheaded multi-channel marketing campaigns, resulting in record-breaking ticket sales and enhanced community engagement.
- Cultivated brand growth locally and nationally by implementing cohesive branding strategies and establishing a persistent media presence.

Previously, as Marketing and Operations Manager at The Grand Resort and Spa, I expanded the brand's global visibility through strategic media collaborations, including partnerships with Emmy-winning productions. I managed comprehensive social media campaigns and implemented innovative email marketing strategies to drive engagement and revenue growth.

Beyond my professional experience, I am deeply committed to community impact, volunteering my expertise to organizations such as GALA Choruses, Inc., and serving as a commentator for Queer News Tonight. My passion for the arts and culture sector aligns seamlessly with [Company Name]'s mission. I am eager to bring my skills to your team to further elevate [specific project or goal related to the company].

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my expertise in marketing and sponsorship development can contribute to the success of [Company Name]. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your vision.

Warm regards,

Edward Otto Zielke
