

Hugh Albrecht Scholarship Application

Puget Sound Skills Center offers seniors the opportunity to apply for the Hugh Albrecht Scholarship to fund further education of PSSC students in the profession of their choice.

Hugh Albrecht was honored to be the Founding Director of Puget Sound Skills Center. He grew up in the Georgetown neighborhood and attended Seattle's Cleveland High School. He went on to spend four years in the U.S. Coast Guard returning to Ellensburg to attend Central Washington University (then C.W.C. or Central Washington College). He graduated in 1958 with degrees in Mathematics and Industrial Arts, later receiving a Master's in Mathematics. Hugh had a long and substantial career in education and was part of the Highline School District for 27 years.

In 1966, Hugh became the first director of the Occupational Skills Center for the Highline, South Central and Federal Way School Districts. He retired in 1987.

Students applying for the Hugh Albrecht Scholarship should be:

- A member of the senior class currently enrolled in PSSC, graduating in the spring term.
