ABOUT JAWAI SAFARI

Jawai, located in the Pali district of Rajasthan, is renowned for its thrilling leopard safari experience, offering a rare chance to spot wild leopards roaming freely among the granite hills. Unlike traditional jungle safaris, Jawai's open gypsy safari takes you through rugged terrains, making it an off-roading adventure with stunning landscapes and panoramic views from high hills. The leopards here coexist peacefully with the local Rabari community, and sightings are surprisingly frequent due to their strong territorial presence. Besides leopards, Jawai is also famous for crocodile sightings around the Jawai Dam, where large marsh crocodiles bask on the rocks, creating a perfect wildlife photography opportunity. The safari also offers sightings of birds like flamingos, owls, and eagles. The combination of wildlife, tribal culture, dramatic rocky backdrops, and off-road exploration makes the Jawai Leopard Safari a truly unique and unforgettable experience.

CROCODILE VISIT

Jawai is not only famous for its majestic leopards but also for the massive crocodile that inhabit the Jawai Dam and nearby water bodies. These mugger crocodiles (Indian crocodiles) can often be seen basking on the rocky banks or swimming silently in the dam waters, especially during the morning and late afternoon hours.

VILLAGE VISIT

A village visit safari in Jawai offers a heartwarming and culturally rich experience that goes beyond wildlife. During this safari, you get a chance to explore the life of the Rabari tribe, a semi-nomadic pastoral community known for their traditional red turbans, white dhotis, and strong connection with leopards. The safari takes you through authentic rural villages, where you can witness age-old customs, mud houses, local farming practices, and even participate in traditional chai (tea) sessions with locals.

Kambeshwar Mahadev Temple

Kambeshwar Mahadev Temple – A Divine Ascent in Jawai

Nestled in the serene hills of Jawai, Kambeshwar Mahadev Temple is a sacred 500-year-old shrine dedicated to Lord Shiva. Surrounded by natural beauty and spiritual calm, the temple offers a truly peaceful and powerful experience. What makes this temple journey truly unique is the ascent of nearly 600 stone steps, carved along the hillside. These traditional step-style stairs not only test your physical strength but also guide you into a deeper spiritual state as you climb toward the sacred sanctum.

Shri Hathundi Teerth (Rata Mahaveerji), Bijapur,

Rata Mahaveerji or Hathundi Teerth was built in 313 A.D. (370 V.S.) and was earlier dedicated to Parshvanatha. After the installation of the idol of Shri Mahaveer Bhagwan in 1278 (1335 V.S.) this temple has Bhagwan Mahaveer Swami as its primary deity. This idol is made of bricks, sand and calcium, having a reddish (Rata) colour and hence also is called Rata Mahaveerji. This 135-cm tall idol of Mahaveer Swami is in a padmasan position. The 4th century idol is still present in this temple.
