

Ag Advantage Rules and Guidelines

- ❖ Appropriate and respectful behavior is required at all times within the facility.
- ❖ No foul language, fighting, spitting, intimidation, discrimination, vandalism, or rough housing.
- ❖ Appropriate and respectful attire is required at all times.
 - Shirts, shorts/pants, and socks/shoes must be worn at all times.
 - Shirts must cover cleavage. Shorts/pants must fasten at the waist.
 - Long pants are required when working with animals.
 - No sandals or open toed shoes are to be worn. Boots are highly recommended!
- ❖ Use of tobacco products, alcohol, and illegal drugs is strictly prohibited.
 - Any person under the influence of drugs or alcohol will be asked to leave immediately and will be permanently released from the Ag Advantage program.
- ❖ Special care will be given when working with animals and tools to ensure the safety of one's self, other people, animals, and properties.
- ❖ Any animals injured, lost or broken equipment, or property damage as a result of carelessness or negligence will be the responsibility of the customer.
- ❖ Additional rules posted or directed by staff, representatives, or affiliates of Ag Advantage will be enforced.
- ❖ In registering myself, or my child, for Ag Advantage participation, and by signing the Ag Advantage Release of Liability document I signify that I have read and understand these rules and guidelines put forth by Robin Futch and Ag Advantage, and agree that I will follow ALL rules, written or directed, while participating in Ag Advantage activities.
