Royalty Expectation Statement & Code of Conduct

I understand that if I am awarded the title of Fort Verde Days Rodeo Queen/Jr Queen, I will be a representative of Fort Verde Days Rodeo (FVRD) and Camp Verde Arena Association (CVAA). I am responsible to represent the sport of rodeo in a professional manner. I cannot be the queen for any other organization or entity once I accept this title. I will give up all other titles that have not ended prior to October 1 of the reign period. I will strive to represent unparalleled sportsmanship with high moral and ethical character.

This title recognizes a number of attributes: sportsmanship, personality, public speaking and appearance. Therefore, it is my responsibility, as Fort Verde Days Rodeo and CVAA representative to act, speak, and dress according to the presence my title requires any time I am in the public eye. Riding and horsemanship skills are essential to the promotion of the sport of rodeo. Therefore, I will strive to improve my riding and horsemanship skills in order to better promote the sport. I understand that I am responsible to provide my own horse that is capable of performing queen activities during rodeo activities and events.

If I become the Fort Verde Days Rodeo Queen or Jr Rodeo Queen, I Will:

- Wear my crown and sash any time I am acting in the capacity as FVDR and CVAA and only with the approval of Queen Committee Chair.
- Make myself available for all opportunities to appear as FVDR to the public.
- Attend specific events as requested by the rodeo committee (Exhibit A shall have mandatory appearances I agree to be available for). Queen Committee Chair must approve all official appearances.
- Understand it is my financial responsibility to attend all required appearances.
- Be on time. No one should have to wait on you. Prepare for the next event so you are ready.
- Do my homework on directions, layout, schedules and requirements for each event. Know what to bring, wear and pack. Know where to check in, park, overnight stay, etc.
- Follow through on my responsibilities through the end of my reign.
- Not drink, smoke, use profanity, or chew gum in public while acting in the capacity as the FVDR
- Not hang out in bars and/or parties at a rodeo or event while acting in the capacity as the FVDR
- Never publicly complain - while visiting I will remain positive and professional. Work with the rodeo committees on whatever promotions they may desire.
- Not make deals with vendors or potential vendors for your personal use, benefit, or for your relatives.
- Not use cell phones in public, check messages, or keep phones in pockets or public view while wearing the crown and banner.
- Remember the last thing you do is what they will remember. First impressions are important and last impressions are forever.
- At no time during the term of my contract shall I post suggestive photos or use profanity on social media (no photos or discussions about boyfriends, no photos or discussions about parties or alcohol). I will never appear inappropriate on social media (Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram or Other) whether it be a personal page or account or the intellectual property of FVDR.
- At all times keep posts professional in verbiage, with no language or images that is unbecoming to, or in any way compromise the professional image of FVDR and CVAA.

Dress Code Requirements:

- Remember, you're invited to bring color and sparkle to an event.
- FVDR must adhere to PRCA arena dress codes in the rodeo arena.
- Dress or skirt no shorter than 2" above knees.
- No visible tattoos or facial piercings.
- No sleeveless or tank tops.
- No cleavage, no braless attire, no open back or bare midriff.
- At no time should bra straps be visible.

- Clothing should reflect a professional western image. No evening gowns or cocktail type dresses.
- No burn out, transparent material, or see-through lace on body portion of top.
- Hair is to be styled fashionably. Ponytails and or braids may be periodic acceptable alternatives, however, hair must still be styled, (some curl...wings...).
- Hats: keep a brush for each color. Keep them clean and well-shaped.
- Boots: keep clean and free of mud.
- Banners: clean and pressed. Always carry pins for the banner.
- Jeans: clean and preferably ironed.
- Shirt: Flashy for the arena. You need to be set apart from the rest. Always wear the shirt color for the rodeo theme of the performance when applicable (e.g., pink for Pink Night).
- Pay attention to your fingernails and makeup, especially lipstick.
- After changing into non-rodeo attire continue to follow professional, conservative clothing and attire.

Other:

- Your vehicle, trailer, horse, etc. need to be clean and well-kept. They represent you and you represent our FVDR and PRCA rodeo.
- If you stay at someone's home or board your horse there for an event, leave it as you found it (stalls cleaned). They are not your maids, and we want to be welcomed back.
- Send thank you notes after visiting to those who have helped you during your stay. (Rodeo Committee persons whom you have worked with directly (gate/flag persons, stock contractor, and hostess when you stay with someone or who have bought a meal or any courtesy extended to you.)
- Understand any costs associated with overnight stays if you are not self-contained. FVDR & CVAA does not reimburse hotel rooms.
