

Learn with Ginger

Ginger teaches us about FRIENDSHIP &
how to be an ally

PITTY PAWFESSORS

What does the word Ally mean to you?

<https://vimeo.com/474254402>

Ginger is:

- Tolerant
- Inclusive
- Accepting
- Calming
- Supportive
- Non-judgmental

What other words would you use to describe a good friend?

Share about a time when someone was a good friend/ally to you or someone you know.

How did their support make you feel?

Your turn:
How can you use
Ginger's Lesson
to:

- Help an animal?
- Help a person in your community?
- Help yourself?

CAUGHT BEING KIND
ACTS OF FRIENDSHIP/ALLYSHIP

COMPASSION IN THE CLASSROOM POSTER A LESSON IN FRIENDSHIP AND BEING AN ALLY

Place Ginger's picture in the middle of a poster board.

Leave a basket of colored pens and post-it notes or heart cutouts and tape

Students can write notes when they witness "ally-ship", kindness or compassion from their classmates. Have children write a narrative on post-it notes or heart cutout when they catch a peer being an ally (being a good friend or showing compassion to a classmate.)

Add the post-its/hearts to the poster.

Examples:

"Camila stood next to me when I told a 5th grader I wasn't done with my turn"

"Isaiah told a bully to leave me alone, and it worked!"

"Eli helped Jenna rebuild her tower when it fell."

"Mo got a teacher when Ruby hurt her knee."

"Sonia encouraged Brody as he was learning to climb the rock wall."

"Javier invited Liam to eat lunch with him and his friends"
