

Learn with Lucky

LUCKY teaches us about FORGIVENESS and
SELF ACCEPTANCE

PITTY PAWFESSORS

What does FORGIVENESS mean to you?

What does Lucky mean when she says, “you are so much more than the worst thing you’ve ever done”?

Pit in her stomach???
I don't wanna be in her stomach!!

Share about a time
that you made a bad choice or hurt someone.

How did you feel?
Did you apologize?
Did you forgive yourself?
Did you learn and grow?

Dear
Diary,

Activity: Fill out a diary page (or pages) in the same format as Lucky's Diary.

Write about a mistake or bad choice you have made

Make up a silly "label" that you are NOT

Make an inspirational name for yourself.

Write what you can try to do next time.

Dear Diary,

I _____

But I am not a _____

I am _____

But I _____

Next time I will try to _____

Everyone makes mistakes, makes bad choices, has bad days and has fears. It is important to work through these things so we can forgive ourselves and move forward. By talking and writing about experiences, we can learn from them and we can accept and allow ourselves to be exactly who we are.

Activity: Fill out a diary page (or pages) in the same format as Lucky's Diary.

Example from Lucky's Diary:

Dear Diary,
I chewed my daddy's favorite shoe.
But I am not a "Slipper Ripper".
I am "Lovable Lucky" and I made a bad choice.
Next time I will try to chew my toy instead.
