

Stray Safety Practice

- Have children all stand up and move around, get out a large stuffed dog and start growling.
- Call out “Stray Dog” and then growl again and ask, “What do you do?”
- Have children all become trees and have the dog go around the room sniffing them. If they move make him growl, if they are still praise them for being safe and walk away.