Birth of Martin Family Gathering by Bessie M May (1914-2008) written in 2006

Howdy ya'll. Since we met in Corpus on the Bay in 1907 and are still, this year back in the beach area, I thought I'd tell you what was the "BIRTH" of our Martin Family Reunion.

My mother, Bess (Parker) Bauer, who was born in 1893 was the daughter of Lela Parker, the daughter of J.A. Martin (affectionately known as Grandpa).

Lela (Parker) Martin was of the first group of children born to J.A. Martin, whose wife was Alice Amanda. Now I, Bessie May am the oldest living member of the J.A. Martin family. I remember ALL the children of my Great Grandfather J.A. Martin.

Now here's the interesting part. When my mother Bess was just a young girl, she along with many Martins and Methodist friends went to Corpus Christi for the big Methodist Encampment called "Epworth by the Sea." At that time, there were no cars, so they loaded their tents, cots, bedding, food, coal stoves, etc. onto the train. My mother, along with her relatives and Methodist friends would arrive in Corpus, a journey of about 75 or 80 miles by train. The whole family joyfully anticipated this trip to the seaside for the big Methodist Encampment. My grandmother Lela Martin said this was one of her cherished memories. She mentioned she thought the Encampment was in the area where North Beach is today. As I mentioned, the big Encampment was called "Epworth by the Sea." There was a large building or auditorium where there was preaching, and plenty of it. There was preaching in the morning and also in the evening. I believe that the gathering by the sea of our ancestors may have been the "birth" of our family gatherings, now known as Martin Family Reunion.

Next, my brother Paul (born in 1910) said he remembered another family gathering at the J.A. Martin Ranch-sort of a barbeque. He also told about Fred Martin swinging him, and having such a good time at Grandpa Martin's ranch. Paul was about 6 or 7 years old. I suppose I was there also but do not have any memories of this.

Another family gathering-ah, yes! My mother, Bess said she too remembered going out to the ranch when she was a little girl in the late 1800s. She remembered going to the ranch at Christmas time, holidays, and other occasions. My mother Bess lost her father at a young age, so she probably felt like her grandfather J.A. Martin was her own father because she enjoyed every minute of her visits to the ranch. Her days at the ranch were filled with laughter, happiness, and lots of fun.

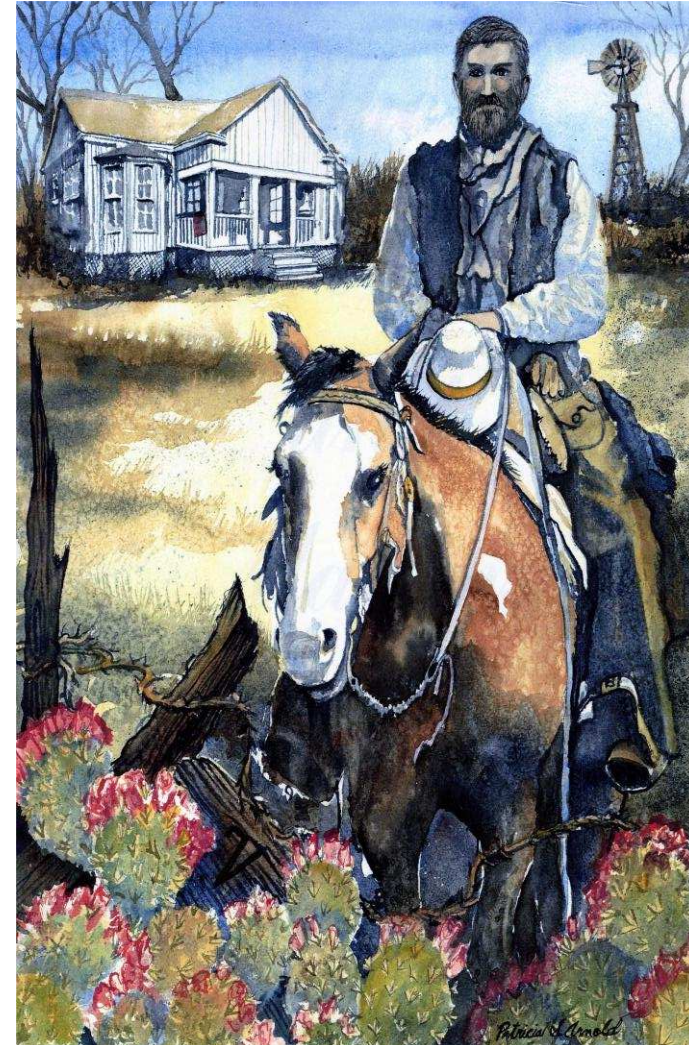

Now, I, Bessie May remember another family gathering. You see, as a little girl, I would go to San Antonio to visit my grandmother, Lela, who lived at the Russell House. Now the Russell House was a big boarding house very close to downtown and only a few blocks to the Travis Park Methodist Church. Many of the Martins would come to San Antonio and always come to the Russell House to visit my grandmother.

A special time for them to come was the Methodist District Conference. Once I asked Mamoo (as I called my grandmother Lela), "How are we all kin?" She smiled and said, "Sit down honey and I'll tell you." She went on to say, "They are ALL of them our brothers and sisters, and we love every one of them, and don't you forget that." So with that, I put on my pink organdie scratchy dress and my white gloves and little red straw hat and marched down to the Travis Park Methodist Church, along with a large group of the Martin family. Guess who led the procession.....Hattie Goff of course !!!

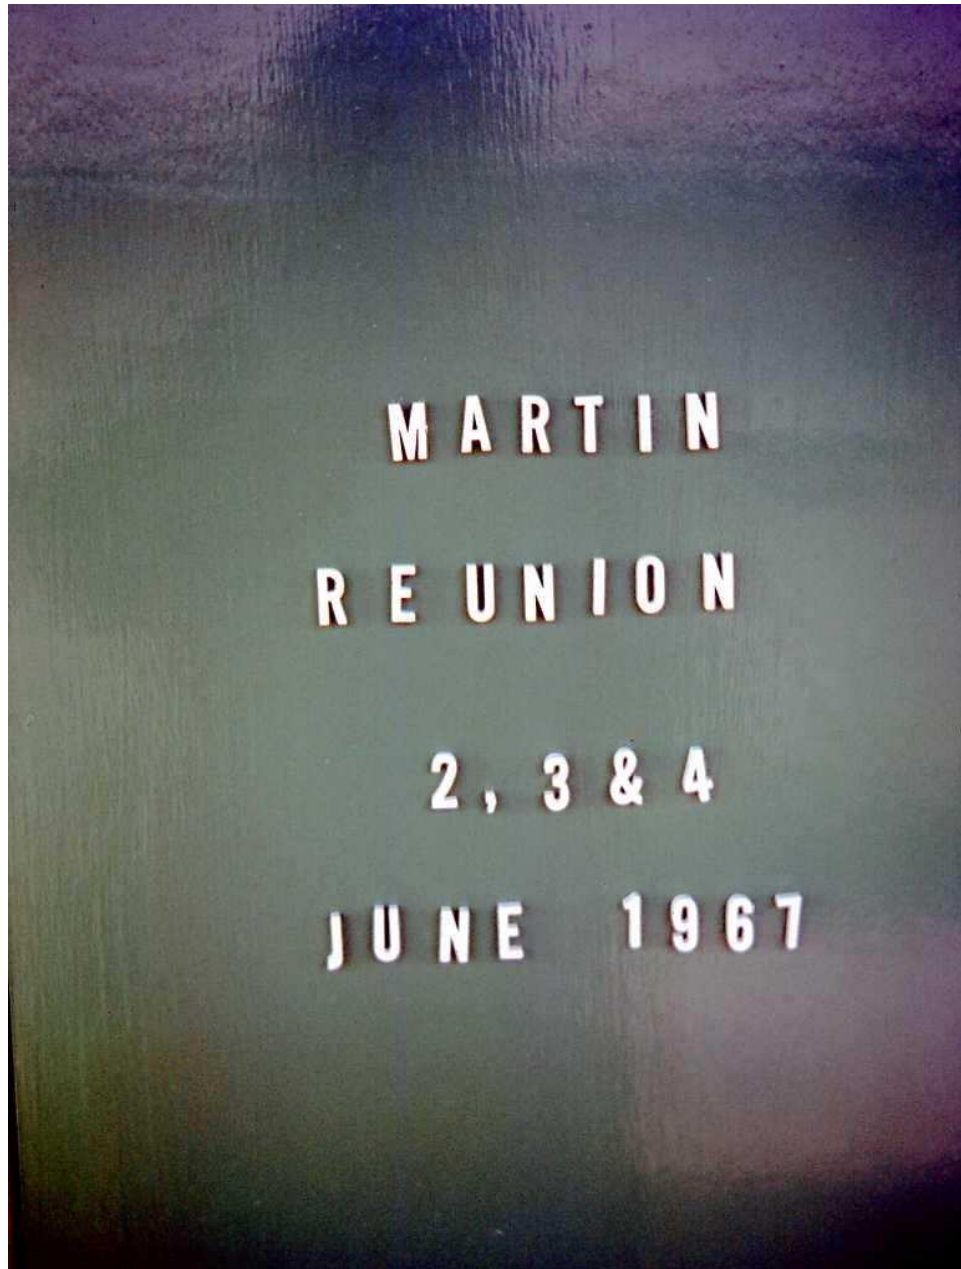

Well, I expect Hattie decided then and there that she and her husband Potts would start a Martin Family Reunion. So, they did start the family gathering in their home in Kenedy, Texas. Many came to the family reunion in Kenedy. Of course I was there along with so many.

I knew ALL of the wonderful J.A. Martin children, and what a joy and blessing it has been to be a part of this group and all of their growing families. Each one is very special, along with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Every single one of you are winners. You are !

Now I'll just have to confess to you, I am almost 93 and I'll tell you a secret. I'll plead guilty to one thing. Having attended so many, many of the great family reunions, I still can't remember each one, who is exactly kin to a brother, husband, wife, cousin, sister, but I'll tell you one thing. It doesn't really matter does it? As long as we all love each other and keep up the wonderful fellowship with each other, then we can pass this on to all future generations.

Kissing Cousins Reunions Began In '31-Going Strong

Among the names that were prominent in this area when Karnes was a newly-formed county were Rutledge and Martin. Richard A. Rutledge was postmaster of Daileyville from 1870 to 1873 and back in 1886. Jim Rutledge and Abb Martin were attending Judge Sam Lowrie's community school located at the forks of Main and Dry Esccondido creeks.

Later W. J. (Jim) Rutledge married the sister of his school mate, J. Abb Martin, and so their children were first cousins.

In 1931 descendants of J. Abb Martin began holding family reunions; a custom they have followed each year except for the war years. Some years later the descendants of W. J. Rutledge and his wife, Mrs. Catherine Martin Rutledge, began to hold their reunions and the two groups merged to form the "Kissing Cousins Reunions."

Last week-end the descendants of those early first cousins, the Martins and the Rutledges again came to Kenedy from far and wide for their 1973 reunion. The Martin descendants made their headquarters at the Safari Motel and the Rutledges at the Mockingbird.

Kenneth Stanaland of Houston, president of the Rutledge group presided over their meeting on Saturday night when memorial services were held with Mike Cofer of Longview reading the memorial. Miss Peggy Lynch-Smith of San Antonio and Mrs. Jim Rutledge of Kenedy read appropriate poems.

The relatives voted their appreciation to John Henry Rutledge of Benavides for his devotion to the reunion and they saluted Mrs. G. D. Russell of Kenedy, who recently retired as a school teacher, for her long years of service.

They enjoyed hearing old letters read by John Dudley of San Antonio, Lud F. Singleton, Jr. of Humble and John Henry Rutledge, and old family incidents retold by E. P. Ruhmann, Jr. of Kenedy, Mrs. Irving Cofer of Longview, Mrs. R. A. Davis and Mrs. E. P. Ruhmann, Jr. of Kenedy, Will J. Rutledge of Beeville and others.

Albert Lyons, Jr., of Bryan presided over the business session of the Martin members on Saturday evening and Mrs. Lyons was secretary.

Officers elected by the Rutledge descendants for the coming year were E. P. Ruhmann, III, president; Lud F. Singleton, Jr., vice president; and Mrs. Browne Rutledge of Kenedy, secretary-treasurer.

The Martin descendants elected Loyd F. Martin of San Marcos, president; Mrs. Gene Everett of Rockport, vice president; and the twin sisters, Mrs. P. R. Goff, Jr., and Mrs. J. A. Jalufka of Kenedy were elected secretary and treasurer.

Each family presented skits on Saturday night and movies and slides were shown. On Sunday the families enjoyed chicken dinners.

There were 80 or more present for each reunion. For the first time the P. R. Goff, Jr., family was 100 per cent present with seven of them coming from Tennessee.

The twin sisters, Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Jalufka and their brother, Loyd Martin are the only remaining children of the original thirteen in the Martin family. Mrs. John E. Rutledge of Kenedy is the only remaining "in-law" of the original twelve Rutledge children.

The Martin Reunion was dedicated to the late Mrs. Mattie Mikelson.
