

Mrs. Reema Welcome back

This week has been filled with lots of adventures and activities. We had a great start to the week with a full schedule each day.

Monday: We learned more about our new and old friends, learning about their families, summer vacations and selves.

Tuesday: We meet our Islamic studies teacher, Mrs. Sahar and our Arabic teacher, Mrs. Sawsan.

Wednesday: Brought much excitement as we continued to learn about each other and reviewed our math and reading skills.

Thursday: Thursday was by far the most exciting day of the week, as we meet the Chairman of ICCI Academy, Mr. Mohamad Dana and his assistant, Br. Abdullah Alrashed. Mr. Dana was very excited to meet each and every one of us and explained to us that learning is an adventure that will stay with us forever!!

Friday: We worked on a very special writing assignment for our parents, please join us for our Open house next Friday, September 7th from 3:00pm- 6:00pm to see this very special writing assignment.
