

Assalaamu Alaikum parents and guardians,

I hope you are all doing well and in the best of Imaan and health. I would like to remind you of a few things happening this month. The most important of these reminders is the fundraising dinner, in which we hope to see you all attend because it is important to your children’s education. Your support is the foundation of our school and without it, we cannot thrive. Please take the time to review these events and reminders. 😊

December Events & Reminders:
