NOTE FROM THE TEACHER

Assalamu Alaikom parents!

It is always safe to assume that if your child is absent on a day of a quiz or test that they will take that quiz or test when they come back to school, unless we have communicated.

I also want to introduce our new behavior consequence system. Students already have a way to earn rewards with good behavior, but recently bad behavior has been on the rise in our classroom. To combat this a new system will be in effect on Monday. Students will earn strikes when they are engaging in unwanted behavior like talking when the teacher is talking. First students will receive a verbal warning from the teacher. Second, students will receive a phone call or message home. Third, students will receive a warning from the office. Please parents we should be working a team as this issue is affecting the learning environment in both homeroom classes and Arabic, Quran, and Islamic Studies.
