

WELCOME LETTER

FROM THE ARABIC TEACHER SAWSAN ALSAWI

Dear parents and guardians,

Our 2019-2020 school year will begin and I am looking forward to teaching all of your children the Arabic language!

I want to begin by introducing myself. My name is Sawsan Alsawi, and I will be your children's Arabic teacher, also I will be the associate principal for the second year at the ICCI Academy.

I obtained my bachelor degree in Arabic and Islamic studies in the University of Jordan, and I've also taken courses under the Master of Education at Northeastern University. I received certificate in Methods of Teaching. I have been working as an Arabic teacher at ICCI for over 13 years, I taught at UNRWA Amman High School for about two years along with teaching at Dar Al-Huda Saturday School for approximately four years. In 2013, I had the honor in becoming the principle at ICCI Sunday School.

Establishing good classroom discipline is essential to achieve the child's success, confidence, and well-being.

I will be working with your child in learning to read, write, and speak in Arabic within an Islamic environment.

My expectations from my students are:

- 1- Showing respect.
- 2- Collaborating with others.
- 3- Being responsible for what actions they may present.

4- Reading, writing, and speaking in Arabic.

5- Doing homework. New homework will be sent home on Fridays and due back on Monday, the purpose of homework is to reinforce what we have learned in class and to teach responsibility.

I will try and make the Arabic class interesting and easy, so that each student is able to understand as well as enjoy it.

I look forward to meeting your child's needs in Arabic with more classroom activities. I strongly encourage your involvement in your child's success. Good communication between parents, teachers, and students is very important for your child's academic growth.

Please feel free to contact me with any concerns or questions.
