

SOCIAL STUDIES 5TH TO 8TH

The Official Newsletter of Ms. Esma's Social Studies

Asalamu Alaikum!

I am your child's Social Studies Teacher, Ms. Esma Hussein! I am extremely excited to be your child's teacher. I have been a teacher for the past two years and can't wait to gain new experiences with your children as my students. I can't wait to start the remaining of school year together! I am looking forward to a very productive and exciting school year.

I have set high standards for our classroom.

- Being prepared for class! Each student need to bring a notebook and folder dedicated for Social Studies only and only for Social Studies. They must bring any homework assigned to class!
- Must pay attention, participate and always ask questions!
- Must respect themselves, students around them as well as respecting all teachers!
- Must takes responsibility for their actions.

My goal is to give your child the best education possible by providing him/her with the skills they need to reach their full potential, while making it fun and enjoyable at the same time. However, more importantly, my priority is to help your child grow morally, spiritually and emotionally to become a strong, confident, successful, caring and well-rounded individual inshallah.

5th and 6th Grade!

Your child is currently learning about the difference between primary and secondary sources! They are using the sources in order for them to learn and explore the past! They will be learning how to choose appropriate sources and gather relevant information for the end of the unit project! The unit will ongoing for the next two week!

7th and 8th Grade

Your child is currently learning about the Bill of Rights! Living in the US, everyone have rights! It is important to know what are your rights and how to use them appropriately! For the next few weeks, your child will be learning about the government and gain a basic understanding of how the Constitution was created and structured.
