Snack voting results voting 🗳️

Salam parents, I would like to thank you for taking the time to participate in the snack voting activity. Basically, all the parents voted “yes” for snacks. So we will be starting, this Monday inshallah! I will start with the students first name, in alphabetical order and we will go from there. I will send out a calendar for every month with the students name on it and their parents will be responsible to bring snacks for the entire week for the students. Parents, I would like to thank you for being a part of this! Think about it as a donation, may Allah (swt) reward you all!

I would like to take the time to say “Thank you”
to all the parents for all your hard work!

Have a wonderful weekend!!! 😊
