

“Everyone involved deserves praise for their efforts in helping them see their potential and build highly productive and successful lives.”

The Summit presented meaningful workshops and fun events that challenged Brevard’s youth and young adults to prepare for successful careers and family life.

The conference was open to the public with approximately 260 people in attendance on Friday night at the Annual Fun Festival where popcorn, hot dogs, hamburgers and BBQ were served with several corporate sponsors providing support such as Eastern Florida State College Foundation, Brevard Public Schools, Community Credit Union, WAWA Corporation, Truth Real International Ministries, Sanders-Randal Rice, Attorney at Law and the Air Force Technical Application Center.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Dean Salvo, Dr. Randall Fletcher, Dr. Mike Cadore and Myron Campbell during the 28th annual Summit of Seven Conference at Eastern Florida State College in Melbourne. (EFSC image)