

Eastern Florida State College in Melbourne hosted the 28th annual Summit of Seven Conference from June 10 to 12, providing a series of life-changing community educational programs for over 500 of Brevard's youth and young adults. The Summit presented meaningful workshops and fun events that challenged Brevard's youth and young adults to prepare for successful careers and family life. (EFSC image)

There were several awards presented during the weekend:

The Young Man of Distinction Award was presented to three young Brevardians who have become positive role models for others and who have succeeded in life despite difficult odds:

- Jacob Lamar Price – Holy Trinity Episcopal Academy
- Javel Cook – Eau Gallie High School
- Xavier Torrell Desmond Patterson – Heritage High School