

Children today need positive motivators and role models and The Summit of Seven provides a program where young people can interact directly for a day with these important influencers.