
RICK BASAGOITIA
FIREARMS AND TACTICS COURSES AND TRAINING
MONTE VISTA, COLORADO

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Twenty-one years of law enforcement experience with eight years as a field officer and 14 years as a field supervisor
- Firearms instructor for the following weapon platforms: handgun, patrol rifle, and precision rifle
- Instruct reality-based scenario training since 2006
- Twenty-one years as Hunter Education Instructor

Relevant Skill and Accomplishments:

Certifications for completion of the following schools/courses:

- Combat Shooting and Tactics courses
 - Tactical Pistol Instructor
 - Tactical Rifle Instructor
 - Advanced Tactics
 - Shoot House Instructor
- Non-CSAT
 - CPW Firearms Instructor (Handgun and Patrol Rifle)
 - Ken Murray – Reality-based Training RBT Instructor
 - ALEERT Active Shooter
 - NRA Precision Rifle Instructor
 - Precision Rifle Workshop
 - Basic Sniper
 - Counter Sniper
 - Scouting
 - Sniper Scenarios
 - Tactical Rescue - Tac Med course

Law enforcement officer (1997–2004):

I was responsible for the following:

- Conducted numerous hunter education classes each of 8 years in this position
- Familiar with many weapons systems carried by hunters for LE and customer service purposes
- Used firearms extensively for wildlife management purposes
- Won numerous awards in intra-agency shooting competitions
- Several agency assists for local LE agencies in addition to normal LE activities.

Law enforcement officer and supervisor (2004 to present):

I am responsible for the following:

- All subordinate officer firearms training
- Instruct numerous firearms courses each year throughout Colorado
- Won more than a few awards in intra-agency firearms competitions
- Extensive wildlife management work utilizing firearms
- Many agency assists for local LE agencies where we can provide resources, tools, and assistance that local LE didn't have, in addition to normal LE activities
- Six years of experience incorporating CSAT methodology into agency firearms training