

FAQ: BC Online Live

What is BC Online Live?

BC Online Live is a platform where students meet with their professor and classmates virtually through Zoom. The instructor teaches live through Zoom on specific days and time. Students interact with their professor on Zoom similar to how they would in a physical classroom.

How do I sign up for a BC Online Live course?

When you are signing up for courses, select the BC Online Live selection under the Select Instructional Method section.

How will my professor know that I am in the Zoom meeting?

When you access your Zoom meeting through your Broward College student account, the Zoom app will automatically have your first and last name listed on the screen.

Who can sign up for BC Online Live?

Any Broward College student can sign up for BC Online Live if the instructional method is available for the particular course.
