MEMBERSHIP TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Membership is open to citizens, companies, and other organizations regardless of their location. Members do not have to have a base in the Village of Sharon to become a member. Members with multiple companies and/or organizations will be required to hold separate memberships for each company and/or organizations to utilize the benefits across the multiple companies and/or organizations. Multiple Company Memberships will be offered at a 20% discounted Business Member Rate for subsequent Memberships.
- The Chamber membership is a business entitlement rather than a personal one. All employees of the Member Company and/or organization are therefore entitled to use all the Chamber benefits and services in the membership tier when working on behalf of their member employer.
- Membership is an annual membership valid from January through December.
- Membership is prorated for new members that join from June through December.
- Members will receive a membership renewal packet for the next membership period in October with a due date of November 30th.
- The Chamber Membership fee is non-refundable, and Membership is non-transferable.
- Membership fees are based on the membership package option chosen.
- Members are expected to act in a professional, respectable manner to other members and within the community.
- Members are required to align within the Chambers Vision and Mission Statements, by collaborating together with other Organizations to succeed at our shared goal for the betterment of our downtown district.
- The Chamber regularly communicates with Members by email, mail, social media and telephone. We aim to only approach our members with information which we believe could be of interest to them. This is an integral part of the Membership and by entering into Membership you agree to be contacted by the Chamber. The regular communication can be terminated at the Member's request at any time.
- We consider our Chamber a community, so we are all about bringing people together to form relationships and encourage trade. Facilitating introductions is at the heart of what we do. For this purpose, we will introduce relevant companies to one another upon request. You may opt out of this at any time.
- We maintain a member directory of all our members. Parts of the information provided by you/your business will be published in Chamber Chat and on the Sharon Chamber of Commerce website and social media.

- Each business and/or organization will be required to complete a logo use form before we will print your ad or article in the Chamber Chat, we will continue to share Facebook posts and events without this form.
- Members are entitled and encouraged to take advantage of the various opportunities the Chamber offers but there is never any obligation or pressure to use any of the services provided by the Chamber, its partners or through offers provided by members for members. Any agreements between the Member and the Chamber's partners are strictly between the two parties, and are not the responsibility of the Chamber.
- The Chamber Membership benefits are subject to change without notice and are subject to terms and conditions available from the Chamber.
- The Members Directory features company contact information, including details of the principal contact, held by us. This information must only be used for individual contact with another member to introduce an opportunity or service and the member company would need to opt in to any distribution channels.
- By submitting an application form you are entering into a legal agreement to join the Chamber. You may cancel the agreement by giving the Chamber a written notice within 14 days of the date of the agreement. There are no refunds for cancellations.
- It is an expressed term of the membership agreement that the member will inform the Chamber about any changes in the contact information for that business (contact name, phone, physical and/or mailing address, website, logo, etc.)
- The Membership is subject to Chamber Board approval and the Chamber reserves a right to refuse Membership without disclosing any reason.
- Membership is subject to the provisions of the By-laws of the Chamber (available on request) and in the event of a conflict between these terms and conditions and the By-laws, the By-laws shall prevail.
- The Chamber shall have no liability for any losses suffered by a Member as a result of using services offered by a fellow Member. The Chamber shall have no responsibility for advice given or services provided by its third-party service providers even though such providers may have been introduced to the Member by the Chamber.
- The Chamber reserves the right to withdraw, resign or cancel a company's membership at any time and for any reason.
