

Addison Music Learning Centre

Early childhood music term schedule

Please note: If our teacher can not make a scheduled teaching day, we will attempt to provide a substitute teacher. However, since it can be very difficult to find a substitute teacher for Orff classes, if the teacher has found it necessary to cancel any classes throughout the year, we will be rescheduling these classes to sometime in July. We apologize in advance for any inconvenience this may cause. We will strive to contact you with as much notice as possible if a class needs to be cancelled. If we can not reach you in time, please always check the front door or the tv monitor as you arrive for your class for notices that may apply to you.
