Power to Outlive Your Herod – Part 1

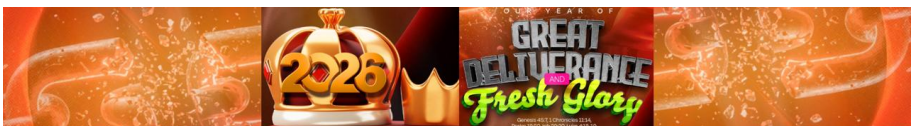

Every spiritual Herod that raises his head against a child of God meets with death, because without that death, that child of God will not fulfil their destiny prophecy concerning Jesus Christ that He would be born, take away the sin of the world, change the government, and bring peace. Yet, when King Herod heard about His birth, he was troubled—and not only him, but all Jerusalem with him. The throne was also troubled, and the people in the city were troubled alongside him.

Every destiny that will shine has a Herod attached to it. Let us read from Matthew 2:1–3: "Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him.' When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him."

Herod was troubled at this good news. It was good news to the world that Jesus Christ was born. There was Verses 4–8: "And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. So they said to him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it is written by the prophet: 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, Are not the least among the rulers of Judah; For out of you shall come a Ruler Who will shepherd My people Israel.' " Then Herod, when he had secretly called the wise men, determined from them what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, that I may come and worship Him also.””

Herod was troubled about the birth of Jesus Christ, yet he claimed to the wise men that he wished to come and worship Him. What a lie! He had sinister and bad intentions. His intention was to ensure that this star that was born would become starless and be plucked away from the place of rulership.

Moving to verse 13: “Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise, take the young Child and His mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word; for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.””

Herod was not seeking to worship Him; he was seeking to destroy Him.

Verses 14–20: “When he arose, he took the young Child and His mother by night and departed for Egypt, and was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called My Son.”

Then Herod, when he saw that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly angry; and he sent forth and put to death all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its districts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying: “A voice was heard in Ramah, Lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, Refusing to be comforted, Because they are no more.”

Now when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, “Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child’s life are dead.””

Herod in the Bible

Beloved, every spiritual Herod that raises his head against a child of God meets with death, because without that death, that child of God will not fulfil their destiny. When you hear of

You may not have a literal King Herod ruling in your neighborhood or family, but there is an entity known as the spirit of Herod

Herod in the Scriptures, there were actually five Herods mentioned.

- First was Herod the Great, who ruled during the time of Jesus' birth and sought to stop His star from shining. God removed him.
- After him came Herod Archelaus, who reigned in his place but did not cause as much havoc.
- After Archelaus came Herod Antipas, also called the tetrarch. This was the Herod who beheaded John the Baptist; John did not outlive him.
- Following Antipas was Herod Agrippa. He presented himself as friendly to the Jews, but he ended up receiving a slap from an angel because he arrogated to himself the role of God. When he gave an oration, the people shouted that it was the voice of a god and not of a man, and the Bible says in Acts 12 that he did not give glory to God. Because he did not give glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him, and he died.
- There was another Herod in the Bible called Herod Claudius. This was the last of the Herods. He it was who encountered the Apostle Paul. Paul had to defend himself before him, and though Herod expected a bribe, Paul gave him nothing.

Paul outlived his Herod. Jesus outlived His Herod. Peter and the early Church outlived their Herod.

Prayer Interlude
Every spirit of Herod pursuing my life, I receive power to outlive you now, in the name of Jesus.

Identifying the Spirit of Herod

You may not have a literal King Herod ruling in your neighborhood or family, but there is an entity known as the spirit of Herod. What are the characteristics of this spirit that you must outlive?

- It is the spirit that envies the gifts of God in your life. Everyone who gives their life to Jesus Christ and lives their lives correctly with God has a measure of divine gifts in them. It is the spirit of Herod that envies you and seeks to upstage you in the office of your gift.
- It is the spirit that is jealous of your position in life. Consider the story of a very poor man who begged for bread at the home of a wealthy man so that he could eat. The wealthy man looked at him and said that he wished they could trade places. The poor man said, “How do you mean?” The rich man replied that though he had abundance, he could not sleep well at night, whereas the poor man, despite his lack, could sleep peacefully when he was not hungry. A rich man envied a poor man who sleeps well because he could not sleep even when he was full.

- It is the spirit that is easily disturbed when your glory shines. We read that Herod was greatly troubled at the news of Christ's birth.
- It is the spirit that investigates the source of your success, promotion, laughter, miracles, and open doors—not to rejoice with you, but to find a way to destroy them.
- It is the spirit that seeks to expose your nakedness and faults. The Bible says love covers a multitude of sins, but the spirit of Herod exposes them.
- It is the spirit that employs your friends to diligently destroy you quietly. It is the same spirit that entered Delilah to terminate the reign and unction in the life of Samson.

- It is the spirit that turns your good friends against you.
- It is the spirit that desires and projects evil words into your life. Sometimes they issue threats or evil ultimatums over your life to promote fear.
- It is the spirit that seeks to destroy your potential. If you do not identify, fulfil and bring forth your potential, you can never be great.
- It is the spirit that projects anger. Everywhere you turn you see people angry at you and you wonder why. Anger is projected around you.
- It is the spirit that seeks to drain your blood. It creates confusion and other factors to drain your blood.

It is the spirit that investigates the source of your success, promotion, laughter, miracles, and open doors—not to rejoice with you, but to find a way to destroy them

- It is the spirit that promotes wailing and mourning. It makes you to weep. It seeks to turn laughter into mourning and rejoicing into weeping
- It is the spirit that promotes death of good things whenever they touch it.
- It is the spirit that rages against your prayer altar.

A brother once shared how he maintained a consistent prayer schedule from 11:00 PM to 3:00 AM every day, and he was reaping a lot of spiritual benefit from the prayers. He had been doing it for so long that it had become a part of his life. Then a time came when a heavy spirit of slumber began to attack him every night around 10:00 PM. He said he would struggle with sleep through the night and by the time he would finally open his eyes, it would already be 5 AM.

Even if he slept all day, washed his face, or stood with his feet in cold water, he would fall asleep precisely at 10:00 PM. He tried walking around but found that he was still sleeping even as he walked around. It felt like something had captured him. Because his prayer life was impacted negatively, he realized that all the good things he had previously reaped began to disappear. He started having trouble where there was previously no trouble.

I told him not to worry and asked him to move his prayer schedule to start earlier at 9:00 PM and he would find that once he settled into the prayer, he would pass 10 PM. He tried it the first day and found that he easily got as far as 12 midnight. Then he moved the prayer back to 10 PM. The enemy had captured that hour and programmed heaviness into it. He regained his prayer altar and all the secrets of the enemy around his house were revealed to him. A red and black caging spiritual mark in his room was revealed to him and as he continued his serious prayers the mark disappeared.
