The Dustbin of the Almighty - Part 1

There is a place known as Hell Fire. It is a real physical place. It does not just exist in the imagination

You will do yourself a world of good by paying attention very carefully to the message in this edition because you may not get somebody else to give you such a message again. Does God have a dustbin? Yes, He does. What does He put in it? He puts there things that are unfit for Him. It is a mighty dustbin.

There is a brother named David Ocheme. He was in church one morning, translating what somebody else was saying in English into Idoma language (a Nigerian language) so that the people could understand what was being said. All of a sudden, while the sermon was going on, Brother David Ocheme fell down and died right there. There was pandemonium in the church. They prayed and prayed but he did not come back to life. Somebody laid on top of him like Elisha but he still did not come back to life. So the doctor in the church later confirmed David Ocheme dead and they took him to the mortuary in the General Hospital in Lagos. That was on a Sunday. On Thursday they were to collect his corpse for burial but by the time they got to the mortuary, as they brought the body out, they found that tears were coming out of the eyes of the dead brother. They were a bit alarmed and they waited. After some time, his face began to twitch and then he opened his eyes. For four days he could not eat as he was trying to recover. Anytime they brought him food, he would eat the food and say it tasted like sand. After some time, he fully recovered. He then abandoned his work and went about preaching about what he saw in the four days he was dead. Let me tell you what he saw.

He said immediately he fell down, he could see his lifeless body on the floor. He could see that he came out of the lifeless body and he was looking at his own body right inside the church. From the same spot he was whisked away by a wind that he did not understand and as the wind took him away, he said he found

Immediately you got there, the angel would ask, “What is your name?” and everything you had done in your life would show on that screen himself in a very narrow pathway. It was so narrow that you could only take one step at a time. Beside that narrow way there was a really large broad way and plenty of people were going into that road. At the end of that broad road, there was a large hole into which they were falling. He however was following the narrow pathway, one step at a time, until eventually they got to the top of a mountain and there an angel of God was standing. He met some people on a queue when he got there. The angel of God had something that was the size of a tin of shoe polish in his hand. It was like a TV set. Immediately you got there, the angel would ask, “What is your name?” and everything you had done in your life, beginning from when you were a baby would show on that screen. They were seeing their lives. Some people begged the angel to stop showing them their own lives because all the times they stole from their parents as children were shown. All the times they were testing their sexual organs as young girls and boys were shown there. All the incest was shown. All the secrets that nobody knew about were being shown there on that thing. Some people begged that it should be switched off. It showed everything. One by one, each person was showed their own screen.

Then it was one person left before Brother Ocheme. The angel asked the person, "You are a choir master?" He said, "Yes sir." The angel asked, "With which church?" and the person said the name of the church. The angel asked if the person was a child of God and he said he was. The angel then showed him the screen of his life. He was alarmed. He thought certain things had been covered for good. When he hid some paper in his pocket, took it into the exam hall and was copying from it, he was seeing it all there. The angel then said, "Well, all these ones we are showing you, you have already asked God to forgive you, so we won't reckon with them. But what is in your pocket?" The person put his hand in his pocket and brought out cigarettes. The angel asked, "Well, since you call yourself a child of God, why do you have these things in your pocket?" The person said he was sorry, that the devil deceived him. The angel asked, "The devil deceived you?" The person said yes. The angel then said he should step aside and called out, "Lucifer! Come..." The devil appeared. All the pictures we have about the devil, that he is black and has horns, are not correct. He was a beautiful creature. You know the Bible calls him the son of the morning. The angel said, "This man said you deceived him." The devil laughed and said, "I deceived you? Have I met you before? Do you know me? Was I the one that put these things in your pocket?" The man said no. The devil asked, "Who bought the cigarettes?” The man said he did. The devil then asked what he meant by saying he deceived him. The angel then said they should take the man to Hell Fire and they dragged him away screaming. Brother Ocheme was now the only one left. As he was going to come forward he saw one sister who used to sing in their choir, a beautiful singer, roasting in Hell Fire. This was the sister who had prayed Ocheme into salvation. She was the one that ministered to him and he got born again. She had also prayed for him to receive the Baptism in the Holy Spirit. She had died some years before but when Ocheme looked, he found her in Hell Fire. That was when he started to cry. It was those tears he cried into real life at the mortuary in Lagos.

God has a dustbin. The dustbin is Hell Fire. All those who are unfit for the standard of the Almighty, He puts them into Hell Fire. Unfortunately, many in our present generation are playing right at the edge of Hell Fire. Some already have one leg inside as we speak. If heaven should come down here now and Jesus begins to separate those who are living right from those who are living wrong, you will be amazed at the small percentage of those who are living the kind of life God wants them to live. This is a warning that Hell Fire is so terrible. That is what I am trying to make you understand now.

I read a story some years ago about a robber in the U.S. who was so terrible that the police feared him. He could shoot a gun with both hands and was very accurate. Nobody could arrest him. They put wanted posters about, offering rewards for anybody who could apprehend him dead or alive. He was a terrible criminal. Whenever he appeared, the police ran away.

The angel then took him away and took him to heaven. He got to heaven and saw the peace, the music and the beauty there

One day this man went to rob a place and, as he was trying to get away in his vehicle, somebody dropped a gospel tract into the vehicle. He wanted to throw it out but just left it. When he got home, after some quiet time, he took the tract and began to read it. The tract was titled: Now that you are here, where next? He read it and got worried in his spirit that there was another world apart from this one in which he was stealing. He slept that night and had a dream. In the dream, an angel came to him and said he had an appointment and must follow him somewhere. The angel first took him to Hell Fire. He saw people groaning in agony. He saw people shouting and screaming. He saw worms of fire going inside people and coming out. He saw the cries and he saw the tears. He held his head and begged to be taken away from there. The angel then took him away and took him to heaven. He got to heaven and saw the peace, the music and the beauty there. He then told the angel that he did not want to go to the first place. This is where he wanted to be. The angel said he needed to surrender his life to Jesus and change his evil ways. The man promised he would, and then he opened his eyes and found that it was a dream. He quickly rose up and went to the police station himself. When the police saw him approaching, they ran away. He asked them not to run because he was a changed person now. He then handed himself over to be jailed because he wanted to make heaven.

Matthew 7:13-14 reads, “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.” There are two gates, one wide and one narrow. The narrow one does not give you room to do anything you want to do. It disciplines your life. In the wide one you can do anything you want to do, it does not make any difference, but it leads to Hell Fire. Jesus told us a true story in Luke 16:19-31, “There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.” When a person gets to Hell Fire, like this rich man, there would be no excuses. Nobody will say God has been unfair to them when they arrive at that point. No one will say that God has given them a raw deal because the Bible is there, the pictures are there and you must read it. You would not even be able to blame your pastor because the pastor too will say you had your Bible. The rich man prayed in Hell Fire asking Father Abraham to have mercy on him because the torment was so much. Unfortunately, the cry was too late.

I have attended many meetings with big and small men where people refused to pray. You call out prayer points and they would not pray. We have had to try so hard to bring some people to attend prayer meetings. When you mention prayer, some people do not want to listen. In that day, in Hell Fire, it would be the largest prayer meeting. Those who have never prayed would then be praying for water. They would pray for release. Once a person dies as a sinner, they might have heard their last sermon but they would not have prayed their last prayer. The prayer would be a useless prayer meeting. The beauty of it, however, is that you do not have to go there. This has nothing to do with whether you are a pastor, a chorister or an usher. There are ushers who are going to Hell Fire. There are pastors who are on their way to Hell Fire without any bus stop along the way. There are General Overseers who are already in Hell Fire. In fact, the Bible says they have to expand Hell Fire to take more people because more and more people are coming in day and night. A whole church can enter into Hell Fire. A whole nation can enter into Hell Fire. A whole family can enter into Hell Fire. A whole classroom can enter into Hell Fire. It does not bother God because He has given you Jesus, He has given you the Bible and you do not want to follow it. If you are waiting for some extraordinary thing before you can live holy, you will go to Hell Fire.

When you look at the faces of people at funerals, you can see confusion on their faces. When some clever and intelligent people get to funerals, they are very sober. The preacher may say the dead person has gone to heaven but God knows where the person has gone. Hell is worse than any picture anybody can paint of it for you. If a person lands in Hell Fire they will remember all the things they have missed. The murderer will remember the face of his victims. You will see all the girls you disvirgined and remember their names. For all the sleeping around, you will see the various beds in which you have slept. The cheats will remember that they have cheated. All the things that you think are hidden will be shown. When a person lands in Hell Fire, there is no exit from there. Even when men and women in our world see certain persons behaving funny on the street or running mad, they place them in an asylum so that they do not trouble those who are normal. Hell Fire is God's asylum for keeping those who are insane spiritually. What a shame it would be for somebody who has been coming to the house of God to find himself in Hell Fire. What a shame it would be for somebody who sang, "Up, up Jesus, down, down satan..." to now land in Hell Fire and the devil says, "But you were singing against us. Now you are here..." What a shame it would be to have your name in the register of a church but not in the Book of Life. What a shame when the enemy rejoices over a person. The enemy rejoiced over Samson. When the lords of the Philistines put out the eyes of Samson, they began to rejoice. They celebrated Samson. It was a negative celebration. So, one way or the other, everybody will be celebrated. Some will be celebrated positively and some will be celebrated negatively. The choice is now yours on what you want to do.

One of our fathers in the Lord in Nigeria said he had a dream recently. He said in that dream, he saw the great Apostle Joseph Ayo Babalola, who can be said to be the father of the Pentecostal movement in Nigeria. In the dream, the Apostle said, "Excuse me sir, are Christians no longer dying?" The man said, "They are dying." The Apostle then said,

“But they are not coming to heaven here. Where are they going? The traffic here is so scanty.” The man replied, “They are dying sir. Every day we go to bury people at the cemetery.” Unfortunately, there is nothing that can be written on someone’s forehead to know who is next to die. If you ever pay a visit to the mortuary, tell them to bring out the corpses. When they bring out about one hundred corpses, you will find only one or two with grey hair. Most of them are with dark hair. Those who were not expecting to die. When I was coming to church one day and passed by the cemetery close to the church, I saw a friend of mine who was a pastor at the front of the cemetery. So I came to him and asked him what he was doing there. He said they came to bury his sister. I asked how old she was and he said twenty six. I asked him what happened to her and he said she died of typhoid fever. I wondered aloud that typhoid fever could kill her in this modern age and he said yes, that was it. The journey of that sister was over. These are the hard facts.

If Brother Ocheme was here today, he would have started crying because having now seen it physically, he tries to beg people not to go to Hell Fire and to go to a better place. I remember the first time God took me to heaven. I have never seen such beauty. The gardens, the houses and the music. There is no music here on earth in comparison. I saw angels. There are many things that I saw that day but one thing I would never forget is the joy on the faces of the people there. When I saw it, I wanted to stay but the angel said I could not come in because it was not yet time. When I opened my eyes and I found myself on my bed, I was sad and wondered what I was still doing here.

To be continued in next month’s edition where we would look at some hard facts about Hell Fire
