Rearranged for Revival

God is giving you an opportunity today to evaluate the spiritual usefulness of your existence

If there is anything God is calling believers to at this hour, it is revival. God is calling for personal revival, national revival, continental revival and family revival.

We are going to look at several reasons why we need revival. In Psalm 138:7, we see one of the reasons we need revival, “Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.” Everything in that verse depends on being revived, or to use another Bible word, being quickened. Now we look at Romans 8:9-11. Romans 8 is a book that all of us should find time one day to sit down and thoroughly study. It reads, “But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.” This means that as you are reading this, there is a possibility that you do not have the Spirit of Christ and therefore He does not reckon with you as one of His own. We continue from verse 10, “And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.”

More than at any other time, we as Christians should cry out for revival. A revival in our prayer life, a revival in our Bible reading, a revival in the way we practice our holiness, a revival in the way we witness, a revival in the way we love one another and a revival in the way we support one another. We need that revival. The songwriter wrote a very powerful song that goes:

*Well, I've been to the river, I've been baptized.
I've been washed in the blood of the Lamb.
I've been changed from the creature that once I was,
And redeemed is now my name.*

More than at any other time, we as Christians should cry out for revival

Chorus:

*I've been changed, I'm newborn now,
All my life has been rearranged.
What a difference it made,
When the Lord came and stayed,
In my heart, O yes, I've been changed.*

*Though my sins were as scarlet, they're white as snow.
I was bound, but today I am free.
I was lost in the darkness, but now am found.
I was blind, but now I see.*

*Like the poor Hebrew children, I wandered long.
In a bare desert land to and fro.
But I've crossed over Jordan to Canaan's land
Where the milk and honey flow.*

There are many lives that need to be rearranged. What that song is talking about is revival. “All my life has been re-arranged...” The judgment of God will find each person the way they are. Those who are alive at that time will appear at the judgement seat of Christ. Those who are dead in their trespasses and sin, who preachers keep warning every day, will stand before that terrifying throne of Jehovah. The Bible has not left us in any doubt about the seriousness of appearing at that throne of judgement. You may kick it aside and say, "Well, I do not think it would happen..." You may even say, "I don't believe!" You do not have to believe. The word of God cannot be turned upside down by anybody.

The Bible did not leave us in any doubt and describes that dreadful day with many names. The way present Christians are going, unless we call for revival, majority of church-goers are on their way to Hell. This dreadful day has been described by scripture to let us know that we should not just come to church and run business as usual. The Bible calls it the day of judgement and perdition. The Bible calls it the judgement of that great day. The Bible calls it eternal judgement. The Bible calls it judgement without mercy. The judges of the earth may make mistakes in court, but in that throne judgement of God there will be no mistakes. You will be the one who will report yourself. It has been called the resurrection of damnation. It is called resurrection into everlasting shame and contempt. It has been described as the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgement of God. It has been called The Great White Throne Judgement. It has been called the second death. It has been called the Lake of Fire. It has been called everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord. It has been called the great and dreadful day. It has been called being in the company of the devil and his angels. It has been called eternal punishment. It has been called being thrown into eternal fire of Hell. It has been described as darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. It has been called the wrath of the Lamb. It has been called eternal separation from God.

The way present Christians are going,
unless we call for revival,
majority of church-goers
are on their way to Hell

Look at the cross. The cross is horizontal and vertical. It was on that cross Jesus died for you and me. This time around, however, He will hold the cross by the head and turn it into a sword. This is a very serious matter. Jesus came to earth and lived here. He became a man. So He is better fitted to judge men. The secrets of all hearts, no matter how you cover it, and the true attitude of everyone would be discovered. That judgement will be done in great truth and in great wrath. There would be no escape and there would be no excuse. It will be according to everyone's deeds. It will be without respect for persons. It will be by the law of scripture. Then if you say, "Oh I never read the Bible. I don't know the Bible. They did not preach the gospel in our village..." there is an internal policeman that God has planted in every human being. It is called the conscience. No matter who you are, if you are doing something wrong, there is a quiet voice called your conscience, an internal policeman that would say, "This is bad." You may decide to silence it and it would keep quiet.

Your judgement shall be according to the privilege made available to you and that judgement is a personal responsibility

The judgement would be carried out according to the secrets of men. Not by what they say with their mouths. Anybody can say anything with the mouth. The outward conduct of anybody can portray anything, but the judgement will be according to the thoughts and intents of your heart. You can commit sin and keep a "frying pan" face, but the thoughts and intents of your heart will be judged. Your judgement shall be according to the light or truth revealed to you. Your judgement shall be according to the privilege made available to you and that judgement is a personal responsibility. You cannot say, "It was because of my father... it was because of my mother..." You are held personally responsible. It is righteous and it is just. There will be no partiality at all.

God will ask questions from us. "What have you done for me? That your talent, how did you use it?"

God will ask questions from us. "What have you done for me? That your talent, how did you use it?" Did God give you a talent to serve Him and you have commercialised it? Did God give you a talent to serve Him and you have converted it to the devil's tool to rubbish the lives of men? You will be asked. "Did you use your worldly possessions to glorify my name?" You will be asked that question. They will ask you, "Who did you personally lead to Christ? Please present them to me now." All the neglected opportunities, the slander, the broken promises, the idle words, personal ambition, love of praise, failure to yield fully to the Holy Spirit, wasted talent, love for power, wrong dealings, quarrels, boasting and lack of spiritual seriousness will be thoroughly checked. Millions of dead persons from the beginning of time to this moment would be there.

No person on this earth has a guarantee that they would live to see tomorrow. Right at this very minute you need to make up your mind to ask God to revive you. We disregard our soul's destiny when we behave as if there is no Hell. We disregard our soul's destiny when we are reckless with the time we have to serve God. We disregard our soul's destiny when we abandon fellowship and become Sunday-to-Sunday Christians. Some do not even like coming to Sunday School. We need that revival.

The church is in a mess now and only a revival can save it. The church now has powerless Christianity, marriage to sin, the drinking of waters of fornication, stingy members, members who would rather listen to somebody saying rubbish on social media than read their Bibles, members who would not sit down and read their Bibles but would be reading what someone else is saying in the newspaper. We have members who are glued to the world. They actually believe that the church should be an entertainment centre. A place to be entertained. Now we have a lot of spiritual laziness in the house of God. We also have very deep spiritual illiteracy and very shallow Bible knowledge. In many places, they hate prayers and are allergic to long praying. This is a very sad situation.

I was at Mountain Top University some time ago. I go there occasionally to minister to them. One of the lecturers there who was a professor said, "General Overseer, the prayer here is becoming too much. Prayers on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, everyday... by the time they finish with us here, all of us will become pastors." So I said, "What do you want? What is your question?" He said, "Sir, I think this thing can be reduced to twice a week." I said, "Look, have you not heard me say that anybody who is allergic to prayer should not come to Mountain Top University? And that the reason you are calling yourself a professor is because there is no Goliath? When Goliath appears, we would know who the professors are." After all, there were many soldiers at the warfront that day, in the time of David, marching up and down. It was easy to march. It was easy to say, "Left, right, left, right... about turn!" It was easy. Then Goliath appeared. Facing Goliath now became a problem, but marching was easy. It was when David appeared we now knew who the real soldier was.

I said, "Sir, you are only a professor because there is no Goliath..." I was still speaking when the chaplain of the university said, "G.O., do not answer them. We must increase the prayer because one night after the vigil where we were praying for the students, from the mouth of some of the students their grandfathers and grandmothers were speaking and saying 'Ah! Who asked you to come to this kind of university? We had finished your family but now you want to change the story...'" They were speaking from the mouths of young ones. Somebody brought in from Canada, who does not live in Nigeria, opened his mouth and the demon was speaking pidgin English. The chaplain said after the prayers he went to his room to sleep. He said he had not even slept when somebody entered his room through the wall and said, "You, I have been asked to come and bring you. You are the one praying for them. You are under arrest. I have been asked to bring you." The chaplain said, "Bring me? No. Am I Samson? Why did they ask you to bring me?" And he started praying in tongues until those things disappeared. I said, "Professor, did you hear what he just said?"

There is prayer allergy all over the place. People would rather go to places where you have one minute of opening prayer, forty-five minutes of praises and worship, twenty minutes of comedy and a ten-minute sermon. In one and a half hours the service is closed. They would rather go to such a place. Something much more serious is happening now. The enemy is swallowing Christians. We need to be revived. There is nothing happening in this nation or anywhere in the world that the concerted prayer of people who are living holy lives cannot resolve. The church is becoming an entertainment freak. There is loss of heavenly vision and a lot of disunity. Sometimes the pastors even forget that they are working for the same master. There is a lot of ignorance. People who do not know anything and yet are the ones speaking. Lack of discipline. All kinds of messages and sermons. Junk messages, sugar messages, valueless messages, disco messages, rap messages and seductive messages. There are a lot of things going wrong. There is a lot of evangelism failure and some avoid evangelism totally. There is an epidemic of baby Christians, shallow Christians, failure in holiness, zero righteousness, zero revival and zero spiritual hunger.

If something is not wrong with you, how can you attend a church for five years and you see somebody speaking in tongues but you do not speak in tongues, you see somebody saying, "The Lord told me..." and you have never heard anything and you are not worried? We close church service and instead of you to sit down, meditate, carefully go home and think about what you have heard, your first objective is to rush to those who are selling meat pies. So you use food pollution to spoil everything you have gathered during the church service even before you leave the environment. If a particular food is itching your throat and you cannot do without that food, you are caged and finished. You need to get yourself delivered from that. Church services here at the headquarters do not last beyond midday. Why can you not observe a midday fast that day and then go home and eat your own food to break your fast? Why should you buy food from your enemies to pollute the blessing you have received? May the Lord have mercy on you.

We have a lot delinquent parents. If you hear what the teenagers are saying about their parents at home, you will be scared. They just come to church and they pray. No discipline at home, no prayer and no Bible study. Nothing. These are things plaguing the church of God. A lot of people prefer prosperity messages. Messages that pastors have preached for years and have not changed anything. These prosperity messages are partially responsible for the sorry state of our churches now. For most people who come to church, their major national anthem is, "I receive it, I receive it..." Not, "Lord, I give that to you..." It is "I receive it." Spiritual gifts are becoming scarce. Women who see things clearly are becoming rare. What the sisters concentrate on are outside things that do not carry any value.

A lot of people run away from Mountain of Fire & Miracles Ministries. They say, "I cannot dress as if I am sick." You do not understand. We are peculiar people. Strange people. A lot of people are in church now who lack the Baptism of Fire. Not having that Baptism of Fire is the reason many are so weak and ineffective. The Bible says in Luke 3:16, "...one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire" Two baptisms: with the Holy Ghost and with Fire. Would to God that everyone would become a prophet, that everyone would receive this Baptism of Fire and that everyone would know that there is nothing in this world. You would eventually realise that everything we are running about to gather in this world, “I want to build a house, I want to do this and I want to do that...” are raw materials for fire, and that no matter what, you cannot wear five clothes on your body because you want clothes. If you saw me wearing five suits because I wanted to show you that I liked suits, you would know that something is wrong with this man. It is either something is wrong with the head or he needs deliverance. If every time you wanted to eat, you had a large bucket of food to eat, you would soon die.

With all this modern day preaching that says, “There is no Hell, nobody is really bad, God loves us too much to punish sin, just ignore all these things you need to change and just live your life...” I want you to know, that life is a one way street. The clock of life is wound only once. The Bible says, life is a vapour, life is a journey, life is a song and life is the flight of an arrow. Your life is like a pen and you write one chapter every day. What godly testimony do you want to give when you leave this world? Is it the testimony of writing evil petitions against people? Is it the testimony of being rude to men of God? What is the pen of your life writing right now? Is it hatred or love? Is it peace or war? Is it godliness or iniquity? Is it progress or failure? Is it adversity or triumph? Is it evangelism or church politics?

God is giving you an opportunity today to evaluate the spiritual usefulness of your existence. Evaluate whether you really should be here. You are not here by chance. You are here by divine appointment. I want you to understand this very well and to key into that Baptism of Fire. Death is something that cannot be avoided and everybody will eventually go. What will be said about you when you leave this place? We need the Baptism of Fire. Fire is powerful and fire burns. When you are on fire for God, the Bible reads like a love letter. Prayer becomes a conversation between you and somebody you are in love with. Giving to God will not be like you are paying taxes, it would be like buying a gift for your darling. Avoiding sin would no longer be motivated by fear of consequences, but fear of breaking God's heart. When you are on fire, you are always excited about Christ.

We need that revival. We need to cry for our lives to be rearranged for revival. It is important for everyone reading this to cry to the Heavens that you want that Baptism of Fire.
